

February 4 Frankfort Rotary Club Program

Fellow Rotarian Joyce Honaker is going to share with us information about the education and literacy work of Project Amigo, including the November 2008 Literacy Work Week in which she participated as a volunteer. Project Amigo is a non-profit 501(c)(3) corporation with a mission to enable poor children of Colima (state) Mexico to achieve their highest potential. Co-founded by California Rotarians Ted Rose and Susan Hill, Project Amigo is headquartered in Cofradia de Suchitlan, a village of 1200. Rotary Clubs, individual Rotarians and other volunteers, primarily from the U.S., Canada and Mexico assist Project Amigo in carrying out its mission. Project Amigo is a beneficiary of The Rotary Foundation.

Joyce is a graduate of Miami (Ohio) University and Indiana University. She retired from the KY Legislative Research Commission in Staff in 2003 after 32 years of service. She has served the Frankfort Rotary Club as chair of the International Dinner, International Service Director, Community Service Director, and Scholarship Chairman. Joyce is Club Service Director-designate for 2009-10.
