

Captain Sanford Goin

Captain Sanford Goin is formerly of the Capital Guards Regiment. A staunch supporter of the Union cause in the War Between the States, Captain Goin was extraordinarily active in the defense of Fort Boone atop Fort Hill during the Confederate raid on Frankfort in June, 1864. In fact, some have called him “The Hero of Fort Hill.” Since those exciting days in 1864, Mr. Goin has led an interesting life, and he has made some notable contributions to his hometown of Frankfort. Seldom without an opinion and never reluctant to express them, Mr. Goin will provide listeners with unique insights into life in Kentucky’s capital city during the Civil War and the following decades.
