

Stuart Sanders

Kentucky Historical Society

Stuart w. Sanders is former executive director of the Perryville Battlefield Preservation Association, the organization charged with preserving and interpreting Kentucky's largest Civil War battleground. He is now Community Services Administrator for the Kentucky Historical Society, where he works with history organizations across the state and administers several state commissions, including the Kentucky War of 1812 Bicentennial Commission and the Kentucky Civil War Sesuicentennial Commission. He has written a wide range of Civil War articles for a variety of publications, and is a contributor to Kentuckians in Gray (University Press of Kentucky), Confederate Generals in the Western Theater (volumes 2,3 and 4) and the forthcoming Confederate Generals in the Trans-Mississippi (University of Tennessee Press).

Presentation Title: "Aftermath of the Battle of Perryville"