

Tony Curtis
Kentucky Historical Society

Tony Curtis received his BA in History from Morehead State University and an MA in History from Marshall University. He is employed at the Kentucky Historical Society as an Exhibitions Project Specialist, where he most recently completed work with his colleagues on the Kentucky Military Treasures online and gallery exhibitions. Tony is currently engaged in research and exhibition development related to the history of the Kentucky Horse Industry and the upcoming Kentucky Civil War Sesquicentennial.

Presentation Title: "The Kentucky Horse Industry: More than a One Horse History"