

Laura Abner

Laura Abner will talk about the services and volunteer opportunities at the Kentucky Talking Book Library in Frankfort.

Lauren Abner is a reader's advisor and marketing librarian for the Kentucky Talking Book Library, which is part of the state Department for Libraries and Archives. A native of Morehead, KY, Lauren earned a bachelor's in philosophy from Transylvania University and a master's in library science from the University of Kentucky. Like her patrons, she enjoys reading in her spare time, especially memoirs, history, and science fiction. She also tries her hand at cooking from time to time.
