

Jessie Bessinger

Jessie Bessinger holds the position of Wet Weather Coordinator for the Frankfort Sewer Department. A native of Woodford County, Jessie graduated from Western Hills High School before attending Purdue University. Upon graduating from Purdue with a degree in Environmental Engineering, Jessie moved back to Kentucky and began working on sewer and stormwater issues in the private sector. In 2007, shortly after the City of Frankfort entered into a Consent Judgement with the Kentucky Division of Water, Jessie took a position with the Frankfort Sewer Department. Currently, as Wet Weather Coordinator, Jessie oversees Frankfort's Consent Judgment program as well as associated construction projects and education and outreach. Jessie lives in Frankfort with husband Sellus Wilder and daughters Jamison and Rye.
