Crit Luallen was elected Kentucky's Auditor of Public Accounts in November of 2003 and re-elected in 2007 with close to 60% of the vote. Luallen served nearly seven years as Secretary of the Governor's Executive Cabinet, then the highest appointed position in Kentucky state government. Previous appointments include State Budget Director,

Secretary of Finance, Secretary of Tourism, and Commissioner of the Department of the Arts. She also spent four years in Louisville and served as President of the Greater Louisville Economic Development Partnership, a regional economic development agency. In 2001 Luallen was awarded the National Excellence in Leadership Award by Women Executives in State Government. During her tenure as State Auditor, the Auditor's Office has uncovered millions of dollars in government fraud and questionable expenditures, leading to the prosecution of several public officials. In an effort to ensure government efficiency and protect taxpayers, the office has expanded the use of performance auditing and special investigations. Luallen is a native of Frankfort, a graduate of Centre College where she serves on the Board of Trustees and is married to Lynn Luallen.

The park is located on the Cumberland Plateau and features the only moonbow in the western hemisphere. Also found at the park are Eagle Falls and Yahoo Falls, the latter being the highest falls in the park. He also spoke about the DuPont Lodge, which is famous for its catfish. The cabins were built by the Civilian Conservation Corps in the mid-thirties and the park also features executive cottages which are larger than most homes! He is also proud of an astronomy program that has been started in the park. He encouraged everyone to come visit this most unique park at Cumberland Falls.
