Next Week's Program...

Terry Shockley, District Governor 2008-09

Terry is a member of the Frankfort Rotary Club, Frankfort, Kentucky, where he has been a member since 1980. He served for three years as an Assistant Governor for an eight-club area. He served as president of his club during the 2001-2002 Rotary year. Previous club service includes the positions of Director of Club Service, Director of Vocational Service, Director of Community Service and Membership Chairman, as well as chair of New Member Orientation. He has 27 years of perfect attendance with the Frankfort Rotary Club. He has served as the District Chairman of the Annual Program Fund and also served as Director of Operations for the 2003-2004 and Chairman of Registration for the 2006-2007 District Conferences.

Terry is originally from Scottsville KY and is a graduate of Western Kentucky University. He has recently retired from a private not-for-profit organization that provides vocational and employment services for persons with disabilities where he served as Executive Director for 28 years. He had previously served in professional and leadership positions in other Vocational Rehabilitation Programs, having managed both state-operated programs as well as a national affiliated program to complete a 40-year career in programs serving persons with disabilities. His service included serving multiple terms as President of the statewide association of providers of vocational and employment services. He continues to share his professional experience in his service as a Governor for the Board of Directors of Goodwill of Kentucky.

Terry continues a 30+ year affiliation as a surveyor/consultant for an international accreditation commission that accredits rehabilitation programs, primarily in the USA and Canada where he performed accreditation reviews in forty states. He also serves on a Governor-appointed Statewide Council on Vocational Rehabilitation for the Commonwealth of Kentucky. He has been involved in leadership roles in several community service organizations such as the Community Council, Home Health, and Pre-School Programs.

Terry and his wife Jo have three children, Kent, Tim and Ann, and seven grandchildren. They enjoy traveling and UK basketball. Also, Terry takes pleasure in hunting, fishing and other outdoor activities. Both Terry and Jo are Paul Harris Fellows.

Opening Exercise..... Dan Egbers

Upcoming UN Programs

Statewide United Nations Day Program will air on Wednesday, Nov. 12 at 9:00 p.m. and Thursday, Nov. 13 at 11 a.m. on Channel 10. This was an interesting program on the water crisis with film producer Gill Holland.

Frankfort Channel 10's Global Connections TV interviews will feature the following on Tuesdays at 7 p.m. and Wednesdays at 9 a.m.

Nov. 11 and 12, Juan Carlos Brandt discusses Educational Programs at the UN

Nov. 18 and 19, UN Undersecretary General Lynn Pascoe discusses UN challenges in promoting democracy, preventing ethnic conflicts, etc.

Nov. 25 and 26, Brad Jenkins, Rotary Representative to the UN, discusses the various Rotary international programs and its cooperation with the UN to eradicate polio, eliminate adult illiteracy and combat AIDS.

Dec. 2 and 3, Former Deputy Secretary of State in the Reagan Administration John Whitehead highlights major challenges confronting the US and the UN in the 21st Century.

Joshua Brand spoke at the VFW make-up meeting about the Medical Air company for which he works which helicopters patients from one hospital to another as well as from the scene of accidents.

He informed us that insurance companies typically do not cover more than about 60% of the costs and that his company sells "assurance" plans to cover these costs 100% to the extent not covered by one's health insurance plan.
