Next Week's Speaker...

Captain Sanford Goin

The speaker on June 3rd will be Captain Sanford Goin, formerly of the Capital Guards Regiment. A staunch supporter of the Union cause in the War Between the States, Captain Goin was extraordinarily active in the defense of Fort Boone atop Fort Hill during the Confederate raid on Frankfort in June, 1864. In fact, some have called him "The Hero of Fort Hill." Since those exciting days in 1864, Mr. Goin has led an interesting life, and he has made some notable contributions to his hometown of Frankfort. Seldom without an opinion and never reluctant to express them, Mr. Goin will provide listeners with unique insights into life in Kentucky's capital city during the Civil War and the following decades.

Leaving Their Mark

Rotary International News -- 21 May 2009*

For more than 75 years, countries around the world have honored the work of Rotary with commemorative stamps.

The first appeared in 1931, when Austria created an overprint -- a later printing over an officially issued stamp -- in honor of the RI Convention in Vienna.

Other RI conventions have been commemorated with stamps, including those held in 1940, in Havana, Cuba; 1961 and 1978, in Tokyo; 1981, in São Paulo, Brazil; and 1987, in Munich, Germany.

For Rotary's 50th anniversary in 1955, 27 nations issued commemorative stamps. Many featured familiar Rotary imagery such as the gearwheel, which a Greek stamp incorporated along with the number 50. Images of Paul Harris and common scenes from the issuing country also were popular.

Rotary's 75th anniversary was honored with commemorative stamps from Benin, Cyprus, Djibouti, Dominica, Ghana, Iran, and others. The postal service of the Netherlands Antilles issued several postcards and stamps as well as a postage cancellation stamp in the shape of the Rotary emblem. The Maldives issued a series of stamps based on Health, Hunger and Humanity Grants.

In 2005, Rotary's centennial inspired stamps from nations including France, Ghana, Peru, and Togo.

Commemorative stamp issued by Cuba for the 1940 RI Convention in Havana. In 1955, Cuba issued two stamps for Rotary's 50th anniversary.

Stamps have also marked the anniversary of Rotary in individual countries and depicted projects and humanitarian activities. A 1960 Bolivian stamp bears the Rotary emblem and commemorates a children's hospital sponsored by the Rotary Club of La Paz. A 1976 stamp honors 40 years of Rotary in Fiji by highlighting a club project that raised money to purchase an ambulance.

Many Rotarians collect commemorative Rotary stamps. Since 1955, a group now known as the International Fellowship of Rotary on Stamps has collected and researched Rotary-related philatelic material.
