Next Week's Speaker....

George Chapman is Managing Director of the Kentucky Integra Realty Resources Louisville office with coverage for Kentucky and a co-owner of the Nashville office of Integra. The Kentucky State wide office is based in Louisville and provides a full range of real estate services excluding sales. The corporate Integra office is located in New York and oversees 56 offices in the US, located in all major cities, with annual gross billable of $110,000,000. The Louisville and Nashville offices have over 20 employees and have been in business since 1971.

George has been involved in some projects you may be familiar with such as Rupp Arena and Convention Center, Humana Data Processing Center, 1990's expansion of the Louisville International Airport, Toyota of Georgetown, KY, U of K administration building reconstruction, KCTCS expansion, the U of L Campus and Medical School expansion and the new Louisville Arena.

George speaks on the latest economic and real estate issues in Louisville and the region. Integra of Kentucky, for two decades, annually presents a U of L economic seminar that provides guidance for lenders, developers, lawyers, engineers and public officials on the current years economic and real estate forecast. George is a member of the Appraisal Institute, the Counselors of Real Estate and is a Fellow of the Royal Institute of Charter Surveyors.

George has served as president of the two major appraisal professional boards as state president. At a national level George served as Area Vice President, numerous committee chairs and has been a committee member for 25 years. He has served on ethics panels on state and national levels attempting to raise appraisal standards and quality throughout the industry. He resides in Louisville and has been married to Janette Brown of Stanford, Kentucky for 36 years. The Chapmans have one daughter, Laura.

Social for KSU Freshmen

The Rotary Club will be sponsoring an Ice Cream Social for KSU students at freshmen orientation on Tuesday, August 25 from 12:30-1:30 outside the Student Union building. KSU is furnishing ice cream, plates and utensils and the Rotary Club is furnishing cookies and the manpower. Please volunteer for this exciting event by signing up with Joe Johnson beside the registration desk.

Adopt-A-Highway

The next Adopt-A-Highway program is scheduled for Saturday, August 15 at 9 AM behind the McDonald's on Versailles Road. Please bring good walking shoes and gloves. Vests, poles and garbage bags are provided. We will be cleaning up the Rotary stretch of road between the East-West Connector and Spaghetti Junction and it usually takes about one hour. Join us for good fun and fellowship. See Joe Johnson beside the registration desk to sign-up.

Thanks!

A big thank you goes out to the sponsors of the Rotary Reds trip: David Weller and AT&T, Randal Cornett and Wal-Mart, Marcie Jeffreys and Crossroads Ford, and Kohls.

Here are a few scenes from the Reds outing.
