Military Box

Please remember to bring something (list below) for our men and women in the military serving our country across the seas: Canned food (Corn, green beans, peas, carrots, etc.); things that can be boiled (Ramen noodles, soups, mac & cheese etc.); drinks (anything powdered that can be mixed with water such as powdered Gatorade, lemonade, Propel, etc.); Snacks (chips, cookies, Little Debbie's, anything that is pre-packaged and doesn't have an expiration date); Apparel (white boot cut socks size 9-12, anything that you can think of that can keep them warm. It's winter over there too and it gets very, very cold, ex: warmer inserts for hands, feet, body); Bathroom supplies (men's body wash, toothpaste, deodorant, razors, shaving cream, baby wipes, etc.); things to keep the guys entertained during free time like playing cards, magazines (hunting, guns, cars, etc.) and movies on DVD. They'll thank you!

Our Condolences

We are all saddened by the loss of Albert E. "Al" Dix, State Journal newspaper publisher and all-around "good guy." Please keep his wife Edna, daughter Ann Maenza and son Troy Dix and their families in your thoughts and prayers.

Well Said...

"Never pick a fight with anyone who buys ink by the barrel and newsprint by the ton." -Author undetermined, but generally attributed to William Greener, a press aide to President Gerald Ford and other political figures in the 1970s-1980s and called "Greener's Law," though no one has ever determined the origins of this commonly cited quotation. "Ink by the barrel" was a phrase often used in the late 19th century.

This Week's Speaker...

The speaker for the day was Alan Sorem, minister at South Presbyterian and president of ROSM (Resource Office of Social Ministries). ROSM helps persons cope with unexpected hardships and our own Wallace Kent helped start the program. The program helps persons with utility needs and gasoline, and coordinates with the Food Bank. It provides a clearinghouse and centralized location to coordinate applications for assistance from persons who are going through hard times. 43 area churches are involved in making contributions large and small. This cooperative effort has assisted countless families since its inception.

VFW Make-up Meeting

December VFW make-up meeting will be on Monday, December 7 at the VFW Hall on Second Street at Capitol Ave.

Happy Birthday!

Family Court Donations

The Family Court Committee will collect sports balls (of the foot, basket and soccer variety) and stuffed animals at the Dec. 16 and 23 meetings, to be given to children appearing in Family Court. 'Thank you' in advance for remembering these children. Polly Jo Green, Chair.

SA Christmas Party

The annual luncheon with the Salvation Army will be at the Salvation Army building on December 16 and will take the place of the regular meeting at the Capital Plaza Hotel. At that time the results of our December 12 bell-ringing will be announced and there will be a kettle available for additional donations.

Greeter Pat Badgett welcomes Dave Steele to Rotary

Dec. 12 Bell Ringing Schedule

Where you see a vacancy please check your schedules to see if you can take a vacant spot. In the unlikely event the next bell-ringer does not show, leave the kettle with customer service at the store. Bring your cell phone and call the Major that you have left the kettle at customer service at the store where you are ringing. If you see an error, please notify Joe Johnson.
