Next Week's Speaker...

Lawrence E. "Larry" Forgy is a graduate of George Washington University and was admitted to the practice of law in 1965. Forgy was the 1995 Republican gubernatorial candidate. He currently serves as president of Health Kentucky, a nonprofit organization that provides free healthcare and medication to indigent patients in Kentucky. Additionally, Mr. Forgy maintains a law practice, L. Forgy & Associates, PLLC, in Frankfort. His presentation is titled "Current Events."

WEG Volunteers Still Needed

Frankfort Rotarians, you still have time to sign up to work at the World Equestrian Games. Help the club earn points toward its $2,000 goal for Polio Plus. Sign up online at www.rotary-weg.org or go into the club's website under the Events page and connect to the website then register and select the days you would like to work. Family and friends of Rotarians may also volunteer. Brenda Rice and Ann Maenza are the co-chairs for the club.

This Week's Speaker...

The speaker for the day was Nancy Baird, who has served as Western Kentucky University's history specialist in the Kentucky Library since 1975. She talked about her book titled, "Josie Underwood's Civil War Diary," about a pro-Union family's ordeals in Confederate-occupied Bowling Green from late 1861 until early 1862.

Keeneland Trip is Oct. 30

Saturday, Oct. 30 our Rotary Club will go to Keeneland. Twelve tables (48 seats) in the Lexington/Kentucky room, with a view of the track, have been reserved. Tickets are $55 each, which includes admission, meal, coffee or tea, racing, program and tax. Ron Christopher and Ed Dance are the chairmen of this event.

Jerry Johnson was the guest of Laura Owens.

Greeter for the day Don Nunnally welcomes Dave Steele to Rotary.
