Next Week's Speaker...

The speaker will be Blanton Coates, project superintendent for the new Judicial Center along with County Judge Executive and fellow Rotarian, Ted Collins and Rick Cramer, the architect for the project. Mr. Coates has 14 years experience in the construction business with a BA degree in business administration from Transylvania University. He has worked for various trade contractors and has gained well-rounded construction experience. Notable projects in which he was involved include the Johnson County Judicial Center, Floyd County Health Department, Harlan Center, Early Childhood Development Center, Elliott County High School Performing Arts Center, and the Pendleton County High School. Mr. Coates will be giving us an update on the construction of the Franklin County Judicial Center.
