VOL. NO. XXXVI

ISSUE NO. 47

November 23, 2011

Next Week's Speaker

In 1997, Renee Michelle Shaw began her career at KET as a public policy reporter and associate producer. In the fall of 2005, she launched the first statewide minority affairs program on KET: "Connections with Renee Shaw." As one of KET's public affairs program producers, Renee is producer/managing editor and host of KET's legislative coverage, co-hosts election night coverage, hosts KET's health series, produced KET's longest-running public affairs program "Comment on Kentucky" for more than a decade, and produces numerous other issue-centered programs at KET.

A former adjunct professor of media writing at Georgetown College, Renee has trained journalists in Southeast Asia on reporting principles and standards, and produced multi-media, issue and public policy reports for a national news service. She travels across the state moderating public issue forums and speaking about diversity, media, and political and state legislative matters.

Renee is a native of Portland, TN. She graduated from Western Kentucky University in 1994 with baccalaureate degrees in Broadcast Journalism and Political Science, and a Masters of Arts in Corporate Communications in 1996. She worked for several years as an award-winning reporter and associate producer with Western's Public Broadcasting Service: WKYU-TV and WKYU-FM. "Connections with Renee Shaw" airs Friday at 5 p.m. ET on KET2, on Sundays at 1:30 p.m. on KET, and online at www.ket.org/connections.
