THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM

The speaker today was Maria Henson, an editorial writer for the Lexington Herald-Leader who won a Pulitzer prize for the investigative series of articles called "To Have and To Harm". There were 17,000 reports of spouse abuse in Kentucky last year which was a 33% increase over the previous year. A wife is nine times as likely to be the victim of domestic violence than on the streets. We need to treat domestic violence as a crime. The most dangerous time is when the wife tries to end a marriage or relationship. They do not leave their homes because they often have no place to go and there are few battered women's shelters. Although Kentucky enacted a domestic violence law in 1984, enforcement was often lax. It all depended on how seriously the police, prosecutors and judges regard wife beating. Many times victims do everything they can but no one takes them seriously. The series "To Have and to Harm" spotlighted this problem. There have been many tremendous successes after the series appeared. The Attorney General's Task Force on Domestic Violence was formed. The Kentucky Chief Justice ordered court files opened to show how prosecutors and judges are doing. With the help of the Attorney General, domestic violence laws were passed in 1992. Courts are now accessible 24 hours a day and stalking is now a crime. Clayton Bradley was singled out as being a private citizen who has made a big difference in the area of spouse abuse and was praised for her efforts.

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM

Next week's speaker will be Shirleen Sizney, Governor's Scholars Program.

THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM

The speaker today was Shirleen Sizney who spoke on the Governor's Scholars Program. This is a five week program which gives the students a residential experience in learning. The faculty are coaches to engage bright minds to be their own best teachers. The goal is to make the student a total learner and total scholar. The GSP has an outstanding faculty who let young minds see what they can be. There is a spirit that everybody matters at GSP campuses. The students decide what makes them diverse. The students are also sensitive to each other. We need to keep students in Kentucky and this is being done through job internships which are tied to this end. Students are encouraged to look at opportunities in their own state. Two GSP students also spoke of meeting good friends and learning about different people from different regions of the state. The students are encouraged to go home and provide community service. There are over 6,000 alumni of this program which is an investment in Kentucky's future.

Classification Talk

David Weller gave this week's classification talk.

Those who have a child's name for the Salvation Army program don't forget your gift.

THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM

The Honorable Paul Patton, Lieutenant Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, was the guest speaker of the Frankfort Rotary Club for Wednesday, December 16, 1992.

Lt. Governor Patton has the distinction of being the only lieutenant governor appointed Secretary of the Economic Development Cabinet while fulfilling his duties as an elected official. Mr. Patton views his appointment by Governor Jones as a meaningful one which utilizes his knowledge and ideas to implement economic development in Kentucky.

Mr. Patton highlighted several accomplishments of the current administration including: 1) the succession amendment; 2) ethics code of conduct; 3) health care reform/restructuring and 4) campaign finance reform to name a few.

As Secretary of the economic Development Cabinet, Mr. Patton believes that in order for Kentucky to reach its maximum economic potential - each community must do its best to maximize local business/industry. The central Kentucky extension office of the Economic Development Cabinet (located in Frankfort) along with other regional offices - were established to further coordination and collaboration between government and business. These offices will work with local communities to better their economic offerings for benefit at the local and state level.

Thanks to Joe Russell Johnson, Amanda Storment Hunt and Laura Graham for helping me with the weekly program.

A ROTARY PARABLE

Once upon a time there was a new Rotarian who went to every meeting of his club with his roster in hand. And he sat at a different table each week.

"I'm playing a game," he said to the others at the table. "I want to match what you look like to what the roster says you look like." And he had much fun. In a very short time, it happened that he knew almost every member by looks and by name, despite the picture in the roster. And shortly thereafter he was elected to an office in the club, because every member knew him too.

The moral: Go thou and do likewise, and even if you never become an officer, you'll get to know a lot of fine friends—and have a lot of fun too!

THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM

CHRISTMAS

Christmas is more than a time of music, merriment and mirth; it is a season of meditation, mangers and miracles.

Christmas is more than a time of gaiety, greenery and gifts; it is a season of wonder, worship and wise men.

Christmas is more than a time of tinsel, trees and joys; it is a season of preparation, prayers and peace.

Christmas is more than a time of festivities, family and friends; it is a season of generosity, gladness and gratitude.

Christmas is more than a time of carols, cards and candy; it is a season of dedication, direction and decision.

Christmas is more than Santa, stockings and surprises; it is Christ, care and concern.
 - William Arthur Ward

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM

Next week's speaker will be Elizabeth Robertson, Exec. Director Big Brothers/Big Sisters.

WELCOME TO ROTARY

We welcome the newest member of our club, Mike Oder.

Mike was introduced by Jim Smith. His classification will be Education/Admin. Public Sch. City.

We look forward to sharing Rotary with Mike in the years to come.

THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM

The speaker for today was Elizabeth Robertson, Executive Director of Big Brothers/Big Sisters. In March 1970, a caring group of people in Franklin County got together and identified some 400 Children in single parent families in need of role models and Big Brothers of Frankfort was formed. In 1972, Big Sisters was organized also. The criteria for a Big Brother or Big Sister is to be a resident of Franklin County for at least 6 months and be mature and responsible Big Brothers/Big Sisters are need for children age 6 and to 13. Once matched, a young person can stay with the program until age 18. The organization provides quality professional services to youth to achieve their highest potential. The child is not looking for a substitute parent but is looking for a friend and mentor. This person must challenge the child to be all he or she can be. What is needed here is that special match which will be a rewarding situation for everyone. These are young lives you can touch in a personal way. Polly Green and Judge Reed Rhorer spoke of their personal experiences as a big brother and big sister. About 2 hours a week is recommended so that the program is not time consuming. To raise money for the program, there is a Bowl for Kids' Sake in which government and business teams are involved.

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM

Next week's speaker will be Robert F. Stephens, Chief Justice, The Kentucky Supreme Court.

FROM THE MAILBAG

Thank you so much for securing Rotary club's corporate membership in UNA-USA. We certainly appreciate your effort on our behalf.

At a time when the need for international cooperation is so great, Rotary Club's membership is especially meaningful. Thank you again for your support of a most worthy cause.

Sincerely,

Mary Elizabeth Chenault

Former Frankfort Rotarian Jim Dinkle now lives in Union City, IN and works in Winchester, IN (both are in Randolph County). Jim is a member of the Union City Rotary Club and invites us to make up at either the Club in Union City or Winchester. His address is 729 North Columbia, Union City, IN 47390. Jim is executive director of the industrial foundation in Winchester and Randolph County.
