NEXT WEEK'S SPEAKER

Next week's speaker will be Paul R. Branham, CPA with Helton, Lynton & Hall.

THIS WEEK'S SPEAKER

The speaker for the day was Elizabeth Marshall who is Director of Governmental Relations for the Kentucky School Board Association. Public education affects our property values and our whole quality of life. We all have an interest in education. The number one concern today in our schools is safety, order and discipline. The Kentucky School Board Association helps school districts address these problems. In 1996, the General Assembly will be asked to open up the confidentiality protections for juveniles who commit violent offenses. Teachers and administrators have a right to know who these offenders are. We are concerned about the welfare of the law-avoiding students. There is a need to know who the serious offenders are. The problem is that we are educating students who were not in the schools 15-20 years ago. Some of these students need specialized services since they are emotionally disturbed. Additional funding is needed. 39% to 50% of new money is used to keep these students in the main-stream of public education. State government has a strong role in public education. Parents now have a formal role in school councils under KERA. 70% of taxpayers today do not have children in the public schools. Things like patriotism and respect for others are taught there. Local boards have little control over what happens in schools. There is little discretion there on how funds will be spent. Local school boards should be able to set minimum standards. This issue will be addressed in the upcoming General Assembly. In responding to questions from the floor, she stated that the state board is today making decisions that belong on the local level. Many persons have had to suffer for the misconduct of the few. Unfortunately, the local board's ability to set standards has been diminished.

NEXT WEEK'S MEETING

Next week's meeting will be TUESDAY, DECEMBER 19th at the SALVATION ARMY. There will be no Wednesday meeting that week.

THIS WEEK'S SPEAKER

The speaker for the day was Paul Ray Branham, C.P.A. who spoke about several proposed bills in Congress which will greatly simplify the federal tax code. There are three proposals to impose a flat rate tax. The first would set a flat tax rate of 17% which would be a tax only on earned income. No home mortgage interests or charitable deductions would be allowed. The second proposal would be a single tax rate of 20% only on earned income. The deductions for charities and home mortgages would not be eliminated. The third proposal would be a modified flat tax on both earned and unearned income. The rate would be 10% up to $40,000 and 20% from $40,000 to $97,000 and on up.

Under the Archer plan, a national sales tax would be imposed on goods and services. This plan would also abolish the Internal Revenue Service. The Lugar plan calls for a 17% national sales tax. Critics say that such a tax would be very regressive. In order to save on taxes, year end tax planning should be done all year long. One should report income when the tax rate is at its lowest. In order to reduce your tax bill, postpone taxes whenever you can.

TOPCOAT WEATHER

WHEN DOES A PERSON BECOME A ROTARIAN?

Not necessarily on their induction into the club. He/She becomes a Rotarian:

(1) When attendance at club meetings becomes a joy, not a burden,

(2) When you realize that you were selected for membership as a leader in your business,

(3) When your mind reaches that perspective which encompasses men of all creeds and colors.

PRESIDENT SETS SPECIAL OBSERVANCE TO HONOR ROTARY'S CONCERN FOR THE FAMILY

RI President Herb Brown has asked clubs and districts to honor Rotary's commitment to family and community by observing 12-18 February 1996 as Family and Community Week. The president wrote to district governors, "We each recognize the importance of such issues as membership development and the continued effort to eradicate polio. All of these efforts, however, will mean little if we don't address the important challenges facing our communities, most important, the family." The president also encouraged Rotarians to observe a family Day during the weekend of 17-18 February.

THIS WEEK'S SPEAKER

The speaker was C. Michael Davenport, a Frankfort Real Estate developer. Michael is a life-long resident of Frankfort, getting his first real estate license at age 18. He is a past president of the Chamber of Commerce, serves on a number of local boards, and is a member of the National Democratic Party Finance Committee. Michael went through a fascinating litany of things "He didn't Understand". Most of them, we didn't understand either, including why the new post office doesn't have a drive-in window; why airplanes aren't made of the same material as their indestructible "black box"; and why City Hall doesn't stripe their parking lot, when they won't give him a Certificate of Occupancy if he doesn't stripe his. In addition, he believes that if we are going to amend the Constitution, lets do it for something worthwhile, such as guaranteeing every child the right to a trip to Disney World. He also believes in eliminating unnecessary duplicate services in local government. Michael closed with a challenge to us to in the next 60 minutes do something unexpectedly nice.

A NEW YEAR'S MESSAGE

"Good works are not all there is in Rotary; good works are expressions only of something beneath. Some of the most powerful forces in the world are invisible. Electricity has never been seen by mortal man, and yet it can and does turn the wheels of industry. Even the air we breathe is invisible, and yet it sustains life. The power of Rotary is invisible, and yet it performs miracles. The gates of empires have been lifted from their hinges by the power of ideas. Beneath the good works of Rotary is the invisible power of goodwill and by virtue of the power of goodwill Rotary exists.

- Paul Harris, Founder of Rotary
