Asa Tipton 44 Years

THIS WEEK'S SPEAKER

The speaker for the day was Thomas "Fox" Snowden who is the head basketball coach at Kentucky State University. He once listed 107 goals at the suggestion of his wife and told how supportive she has been. He stressed the importance of being supportive of each other and not be negative. Citing the example of John Kennedy who would not accept the vice-presidential nomination, why settle for second when you can be first? Tom describes himself as a finisher and listed three things people ask of each other: Can I trust you? Are you committed? Do I care about you? He instructs his players that there are three important rules to live by: (1) Do what is right. (2) Give me a 110% all of the time (3) Live by the Golden Rule and treat others as you would want others to treat you. He concluded his talk by saying you are only as good as the people who support you. He asked for our help in bridging the gap between the university and the community of Frankfort. To be successful, one must be fundamentally sound. This is "your" basketball team and he asked support from all of us.

NOTE

Chuck Willis has donated $100 to the Frankfort Rotary Youth Fund in honor of Ollie Leathers.

CLASSIFICATION OPENINGS

For the past three weeks, we have published openings for membership in the Frankfort Rotary Club. We can accommodate some ten to twenty additional members in the space provided at the Holiday Inn, members who will bring in some additional revenue needed to fund community programs. Our membership needs to be up to at least 115 in order to continue our present efforts to a reasonable degree. Won't you help by bringing in men and women at the top of their professions according to the principal activities of professionals and business persons in Frankfort and Franklin County? This is the purpose of the Classification Roster, which will be available again at the next meeting? Thanks! Charlie Hinds, Classification Chairman.

NEXT WEEK'S SPEAKER

Next week's speaker will be Jim Higgins, recently appointed by Attorney General Ben Chandler to head up a special unit in his office to investigate reports of public corruption thruout the state. Mr. Higgins is a former FBI agent who recently retired after 29 years with the FBI.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

The two hardest things to handle in life are failure and success.

...author unkown

THIS WEEK'S SPEAKER

The Speaker for the day was Lois Barnes, a teacher at Western Hills High School who spoke about education in Japan based on her observations from a recent trip there. She presented a slide show about the Japanese schools and said the curriculum there is fast-placed. Many reforms are now underway by the Provisional Council for Education Reform. Activities emphasized in the schools include music, home economics, and art instruction. The emphasis is on how to bring more creativity into the curriculum. Students go to school for 240 days and 98% stay after school for other activities. All students wear uniforms. The students clean their own schools and there are no custodians. There is fierce competition to pass examinations to get into the high school of choice. This determines the college the student will go to and the college determines the corporation for which the student will work. 50% of the funding comes from the national government. It is mandatory that the students take English. There is also much emphasis on homework.

MEMBERSHIP DEVELOPMENT

The Classification Openings are taken from the Fall 1996 Classification Roster. Please check these or others in the Roster provided to you as a member of the Frankfort Rotary Club. ## TIME

He hadn't time to pen a note. He hadn't time to cast a vote. He hadn't time to sing a song. He hadn't time to right a wrong. He hadn't time to love or give. He hadn't time to really live. From now on he'll have time on end. He died today, my "busy" friend.

OCTOBER 23, 1996

RAFFLE: This week's raffle item was a $25.00 Gift Certificate from Mary Kay Cosmetics. The winner was Charlie Hinds.

TOTAL RAFFLE COLLECTION: $41.00

NEXT WEEK'S SPEAKER

Next week's speaker will be Dr. Keon Chi, Council of State Government. Topic: Lobbying and Conflict of Interest.

PAUL HARRIS FELLOWS DINNER

Paul Harris Dinner on November 2 at 6:00 p. m. at the Holiday Inn, Capital Plaza. The speaker will be Past RI Director, Bruce A. Cook, of Cincinnati. Please contact Charlie Hinds if you would like to attend.

THIS WEEK'S SPEAKER

Our speaker was the Rev. Michael Duncan, the leader of the GSE to the Philippines last February. He is the pastor of the Eminence Baptist Church in Eminence KY, and a past president of the Eminence Rotary Club. He feels that the impact of the GSE has changed his life, as more and more of the decisions that he makes today are influenced by what he learned. The Philipinos were probably the most hospitable people he has ever been with. His recital of his food experiences ere hilarious, as well as beverage choices. Meals were served 5-6 tiems a day, and could not be refused. BUT, they could say "Maybe Later", and quickly learned to do so. It is a poor country in many ways, and a typical Rotarian is a professional with 3 other jobs. Traffic was horrendous and fast. If the road wasn't wide enough, they made it wider, at a high rate of speed. He found that praying regularly helped him cope. It is a clean nation. Major industries are fishing, furniture making, and concrete blocks. Sugar cane is a major factor, as is rice. We saw slides of whole villages buried under 30-50 feet of dirt that has slid down denuded mountain sides. all in all, an experience.

FALL...

OCTOBER 30, 1996

RAFFLE: This week's raffle item was donated by Jeanne Suchanek. It was a $25 Gift Certificate from Kentucky Historical Society Gift Shop. The winner was Ed Janeway.

TOTAL RAFFLE COLLECTION: $44.00

NEXT WEEK'S SPEAKER

Next week's speaker will be Al Smith, veteran radio, television and newspaper journalist, he will analyse the national and state election results.

THIS WEEK'S SPEAKER

The speaker for the day was Dr. Keon Chi. He spoke on lobbying in state legislatures. He researched various issues with respect to state government at the Council on State Governments. Lobbying in state legislatures was one of the issues he researched. State legislatures have a poor public image because of various scandals which in most cases involve lobbyists. There is a need to enhance confidence in state governments and legislatures. He came up with 4 options with regard to improving the public's perception of state legislatures: (1) Start civic education for the public, the media and legislators themselves. It should be noted that 70-75% of citizens are represented by lobbyists. (2) Better disclosure by legislators and lobbyists. (3) Have a better code of ethics for legislators and lobbyists. (4) Have more sensible and meaningful regulation for legislators and lobbyists. At one end of the scale is Wyoming which has the least amount of regulation. Wisconsin has the most regulation with the no cup of coffee rule.

WELCOME TO ROTARY

We welcome the newest member of our club, Mary Vaughn. Mary was introduced by Chuck Willis. Her classification will be Communications- Cellular Phones.
