Polly Jo Green Presents Donation to Youth Foundation for Ollie Leathers

The late Ollie Leathers was a past president of Frankfort Rotary as well as a former coach, principal and beloved community figure. In his honor, Polly Jo Green made a donation in memory of Rotarian Leathers at the final meeting for September.

In presenting the check to the Rotary Youth Fund in his honor, Polly Jo said that the month of September was Ollie's birth month as well as the month he died in 1996.

Leathers was club president in 1978-79, having joined Rotary in 1971. He was dedicated not only to Frankfort Rotary but supremely devote to the youth of the community as well, Polly recalled.

Hub Perdew Will Bring Mirth, Message on Oct. 8

The featured speaker for our Oct. 8 club meeting will be one of our veteran members, H. T. (Hub) Perdew. Arranged by program chair Frank W. Sower, the presentation is the capstone of a series of talks about the history of Rotary Club of Frankfort. It promises to resound with good stories and enjoyment.

Every member will remember that Hub blew out "93 candles" on his birthday cake at Rotary Aug. 20. His presentation will begin with his joining the club back in 1948, and come forward through his Rotary presidency in 1959-60.

Hub is 6th on our hit parade of perfect attendance, now wearing a 37 on his Rotary pin. Ready to support every good Rotary cause, Hub is a Paul Harris Fellow, going back to 1984 as well as being a Pat Ireland Fellow with Frankfort Rotary Youth Fund.

Dr. William H. Crouch Jr. president of Georgetown College spoke about his efforts to bring the Cincinnati Bengals to Georgetown. In 1991, many things were not going right at Georgetown College except winning the national championship. However, he hoped to use that same spirit to benefit the college. Today, Georgetown College has a record enrollment and is in the top 160 liberal arts colleges. Georgetown College put together academics, the Christian faith and leadership training. There is a $96 million capital campaign going on with $32 million in building projects. He hired a full time research person whose job was to pick 15 alumni to raise money. Dr. Crouch then went on to relate in detail his efforts to get the Bengals to come to Georgetown for summer training. This included getting a new stadium built entirely with private money.

OCTOBER 8, 1997 Smith Gathering Shadowing Program Information for Middle School Students

Forms are being distributed to collect information and get a show of interest concerning middle school students of Frankfort and Franklin County who may wish to take part in Frankfort Rotary's Shadowing Program this year.

The forms are being distributed under the leadership of Past President Sherrill Smith to find out if you will be willing to sponsor a shadowing experience for one or more young people. You can provide for shadowing of more than one person, Smith explained.

Students will be shadowing throughout the year, he said. If a Rotarian is matched with one or more students taking part in the shadowing, you will be notified by a teacher taking part in the scheduling.

See Sherrill Smith and let him know if you will take part in the shadowing program this year.

Prize furnished by: Bill Leroy
Amount collected this meeting: $37.00

From 1922 through 1997, 75th Time Is Here: Friday Night, Oct. 17

The moment has come for the Rotary Club of Frankfort to kick back and start the celebration. Friday night, Oct. 17, members of the club will gather at the Capital Plaza Holiday Inn to realize what has been discussed all year -- it's birthday party time!

Charles C. (Chuck) Keller, past president of Rotary International, will deliver the keynote address. District Gov. Jerry Parker of Bowling Green will present a citation to President Don Armstrong from Rotary International congratulating Frankfort on achieving this major milestone. Dave Weller will serve as master of ceremonies for the events of the evening.

Another milestone in a long and distinguished record of contributions to The Rotary Foundation of the International organization will be marked as part of next Friday's banquet. Past District Gov. Len Sherrill will be presented the prestigious Tiffany Award, to be conferred by Chuck Keller, who once headed The Foundation. And not surprisingly, Sherrill joins PDG Barry K. Holder in the very select circle of holders of the Tiffany Award.

It all stems from the chartering of the Frankfort club on Dec. 30, 1922, and marches through 75 years of civic leadership and community service to Frankfort. Frankfort Rotary was established by 18 leaders of Frankfort who saw what Rotary was doing across the country. Members of the Lexington club were involved in helping Frankfort obtain its charter.

Through the ensuing years Rotary Club of Frankfort has been the prestige civic club of the capital city of Kentucky. Its leadership has been drawn from the uppermost ranks of community stalwarts, public officials, distinguished clergy, school superintendents and state government dignitaries.

Frankfort Rotary Tops List in Total Giving to Rotary Foundation

Rotary Club of Frankfort contributions to The Rotary Foundation topped the list for all clubs in District 6710 for the 1996-97 club year, almost $1,100 ahead of second-place Murray Rotary. Here's how we rated:

Top 10 Clubs in Total Giving

Club	Total	Per Capita
1. Frankfort	$8,437	$81
2. Murray	7,383	58
3. Glasgow	4,415	47
4. Paducah	4,205	23
5. Owensboro	4,000	20
6. Hopkinsville	3,000	23
7. Hardin County	3,000	46
8. Fulton	2,300	57
9. Horse Cave	2,200	53
10. Harrodsburg	2,130	44

The per capita giving for Frankfort ranked us in fourth place in the district, behind Prospect-Goshen ($138), Glasgow Highlands ($133) and Capital City ($125), all smaller clubs than ours. Past President Dave Weller was the driving force behind our 1996-97 giving record.

Frank Sower Announces Programs for Last Two Weeks of October

Past President Frank Sower has announced two more programs for October, which will take place the last two meetings of the month.

Sower said that he has scheduled UK Basketball Assistant Coach Shawn Finney to be our speaker on Oct. 22. With Kentucky basketball just around the corner and Midnight Madness once again taking hold of the Bluegrass, it's time to find out about the round ball fortunes of the Wildcats.

Another outstanding program has been arranged Oct. 29 when George McGee will stage his impersonation of the great Kentucky statesman, Henry Clay of Lexington.

SPOKE/VOTREK Conference Nov. 7-8 for both Rotary Districts

The annual opportunity for students throughout Kentucky to learn more about free enterprise, the SPOKE/VOTREK Conference takes place Nov. 7 and 8, sponsored this year by the Louisville Rotary.

SPOKE stands for Student Program on Kentucky Enterprise and VOTREK stands for Vocational Trekking. Nathalie Andrews is the SPOKE/VOTREK chair for this year, who can be contacted at (502) 776-7678. People need to register in advance at a cost of approximately $10 per student.

The SPOKE program will be teleconferenced from presenters as widely separated as Olympia, Wash. Huntsville, Ala., and Paducah, Ky. Two-way audio and video will be employed so young people can ask questions of the presenters. The content will be about advanced technology.

An activity of the Vocational Service avenue of Rotary, the Club Chair for SPOKE/VOTREK is Mike Oder, superintendent of the Frankfort school system. Helping Mike will be RB Brown and Perry Ryan, and possibly others as well. Posters have been printed for distribution to schools in Frankfort and Franklin County.

Two recently-approved member prospects are ready to be inducted by their sponsors into Frankfort Rotary.

JIM WALLACE, whose classification is State Government -- Historical Administration, will be introduced Oct. 22 by Richard Taylor. Wallace is associate director of the Kentucky Historical Society and lives at 206 Glenwood Place, Frankfort.

Smith Gathering Shadowing Program Information for Middle School Students

Forms are being distributed to collect information and get a show of interest concerning middle school students of Frankfort and Franklin County who may wish to take part in Frankfort Rotary's Shadowing Program this year.

The forms are being distributed under the leadership of Past President Sherrill Smith to find out if you will be willing to sponsor a shadowing experience for one or more young people. You can provide for shadowing of more than one person, Smith explained.

Students will be shadowing throughout the year, he said. If a Rotarian is matched with one or more students taking part in the shadowing, you will be notified by a teacher taking part in the scheduling. See Sherrill Smith and let him know if you will take part this year.

Rotarians invited to convention at Indianapolis June 14-17, 1998

Rotarians around the world are invited to don their best racing outfits and hit the speedway to Indianapolis for the upcoming Rotary International Convention June 14-17.

Pre-convention information indicates that there is much to see and enjoy at Indy besides the famed Motor Speedway. Fine restaurants, museums and theaters abound as well as one of the largest city parks in America. The state capitol building is a landmark.

A survey is being conducted within Frankfort Rotary by Len Shirrell to see whether or not we are interested in participating in a Homestay project before or after the convention. If you want to take part in the Home Stay, let Len know so we can contact Rotary International at Evanston, Ill., and let them know how many of our Rotary homes would be willing to take part.

Basically, the choices are to host individual Rotarians, Rotarians and spouses, or Rotarians and their families. The stay is for a few days prior to the Indianapolis

Nominating Committee Begins Work on Slate of 1998-99 Club Officers

The nominating committee for Frankfort Rotary has begun its work toward selection of Rotarians to serve as officers and directors for next year, 1998-99. Under club by-laws the nominating committee consists of the last five past presidents, current president and president elect and two at-large members of the club.

The senior past president on the committee, Sherrill Grant Smith, is the chair. Serving with him are John Palmore, Barry Holder Jr., Jim Richardson and Dave Weller. Club President Don Armstrong and President Elect Ed Dance are voting ex officio members. At large Rotarians appointed to the committee are Dean Sorg and Chuck Ellestad.

Chairman Smith has emphasized that the nominating process is open to any interested Rotarian and that any member of the nominating committee can receive suggestions for club office.

All offices are subject to the nominating process except those of President Elect Ed Dance, Executive Secretary Paula Rarden, and Don Armstrong, who will become advisory director (past president).

The by-laws fix the annual business meeting of the club as Dec. 3, the first regular meeting in December. Chairman Smith will report to the club at that time, when members vote on those nominated by the committee or from the floor.

Dave Weller To Train Moderators for Fireside Chats; Sign Up Now

Sarah Gowins has taken the lead as chair of our Fireside Chat project for November and Dave Weller has agreed to train the four moderators who will lead the discussions.

All sessions will be held the second week of November at the homes of four host Rotarians, beginning with Leroy Smith at 201 Cold Harbor Drive at 7 p.m. Monday, Nov. 10 (Perry Ryan, moderator). The Tuesday, Nov. 11, meeting is at 7 p.m. at the home of Tim Fyffe, 236 Farmbrook Circle (moderator Dave Weller).

There is no Fireside Chat on club day, Wednesday. The chat Thursday, Nov. 13, will be at 7 p.m. with Jim Brockman at 509 Shelby St. (moderator Clay Hulette). Host for a 12 noon Dutch treat box lunch on Friday, Nov. 14 will be Don Armstrong, 119 W. Todd Street (moderator Dean Sorg).

Weller will conduct the moderator training session Thursday, Nov. 6, at 12 noon for Ryan, Hulette, Sorg, Gowins and Armstrong (Dave says bring your own brown bag, please). Moderators will gather ideas presented by club members participating in the chats. By having each moderator a member of the board of directors, Armstrong hopes better accountability can be established for follow-through on ideas coming from fireside discussions.

Rosters also will be provided the first November meeting for Rotary members to sign indicating which home they will visit for the Fireside Chats. All members are strongly urged to participate in these sessions, but the host Rotarian needs to know who is expected to attend, so please sign up promptly.

Miller To Interview Selezneva on TV

Bill Miller has scheduled an interview with Dr. Selezneva to air on "Frankfort's Global Connection," his regular program on Channel 10.

Miller said he also is planning ahead to hold the 5 p.m. Nov. 18 meeting of the World Community Service Committee at his home, 111 Shelby Street.

Dramatic Portrayal of Clay Featured Georgetown's McGee

Portraying Henry Clay, one of Kentucky's greatest statesmen, was the subject of the Oct. 29 program by George McGee, director for theater at Georgetown College. In costume and in character for the Rotary meeting, McGee was introduced by Rotarian Frank W. Sower, program chair for October.

McGee lives in Georgetown and the presentation is part of the 1997-98 Kentucky History Confederation speakers bureau Kentucky Chautauqua series.

A native of Virginia, Clay came early to Kentucky and made an indelible mark on American history as a U.S. senator, speaker of the U.S. House of Representatives and secretary of state.

Married to Lucretia Hart in 1799 the Clays had eleven children and resided at the historic residence, Ashland, in Lexington. He died in Washington, D.C., in 1852 and is buried beneath a magnificent, towering monument in the Lexington Cemetery.

Clay moved to Kentucky and set up his law practice in Lexington in 1797. He was elected to the Kentucky General Assembly in 1803, winning a seat in the U.S. House in 1811. The next 40 years he was a major force in national politics, dueling with the issue of slavery from the position as a slaveholder himself. He did succeed in halting the westward expansion of slavery into newer states.

He was called the Great Compromiser for his role in trying to avoid armed conflict over the slavery question. His popularity never did carry him into the highest office as he squared off against politicians such as Andrew Jackson of Tennessee.
