ATTENDING: Don Armstrong, Chuck Ellestad, Clay Hulette, Paula Rarden, Dean Sorg, Mary Vaughn and Dave Weller; ABSENT: Ed Dance, Tim Fyffe, Polly Green and Perry Ryan (excused).

1. Announcements: Chuck Ellestad was elected Community Service Director to replace Jim Brockman, resigned. Perry Ryan is appointed club Archivist. Clay Hulette, Ed Dance and Polly Green will attend Pet/Sets in Lexington at the Campbell House April 3-4. Polly

2. Approval of Minutes: Minutes of the December board meeting were approved without change, submitted by Executive Secretary Paula Rarden.

3. Financial Report through January 31 was presented by Treasurer Clay Hulette; after some discussion it was agreed Clay would request members to pay dues as they become due because the club is keeping all surplus funds invested for income purposes. Allocation of $140.00 to Frankfort High School for the High School Wrestling Tournament was approved.

4. Attendance Report: Considerable discussion followed the presentation of the attendance report from Ethel McCray. One item is that we need a membership development chair, which was referred to Ed Dance for action. President is instructed to notify members with under 60 percent attendance going into March; also pamphlets will be available to the Sergeant at Arms,

Mary Vaughn, to hand to members who do not understand Rotary International attendance rules in general, and the necessity everyone has to attend at least 45 minutes to be counted present.

5. Old Business: It was agreed that Clay Hulette will speak with Jim Graves about getting written approval about Rotaract from the KSU Administration. Gus Ridgel had indicated a letter would be sent, but no letter has been received as yet. Rotary Home Stay Program for the Indy Convention was shared with the board; Len Shirrell chairs that committee. Ambassadoral Scholarship application process was discussed by Dean Sorg, club chair.

It was pointed out again that to be a candidate for membership there must be a sponsor who volunteers the applicant and that any Rotarian must have a valid classification. Leaves of Absence were approved for John F. Loyd, Jan. 14-April 1; Jim Boyd, Feb. 1-July 1; Tom Snowden, Jan. 1- April 15; and Troy Dix, Jan. 1-July 31. Resignations: Letter of resignation received from Chuck Willis, Nov. 24, 1997 and termination letter was sent to Gary White Feb. 24, 1998.

ROTARY HISTORY

Rotary began on February 23, 1905 in Chicago, Illinois. Paul P. Harris had invited three friends to explore his idea that had been developing for several years. The idea - a club of business and professional men who could and should be friends. Harris was a lawyer, his friends were a coal dealer, mining engineer, and merchant tailor. The aim of the first Rotary Club was the encouragement of friendship, fellowship and mutual assistance. It is significant that each of the members of the first Rotary Club was a comparative stranger from a small town who had come to that great metropolis of Chicago to go into business. Each felt a need for personal friendships to replace those severed by moving from their former homes.

The name "ROTARY" was suggested by Harris; prompted by the original plan of the club members meeting in rotation at their various places of business. As the membership increased, it became necessary to hold dinner meetings which later gave way to weekly noonday meetings. Contrary to general opinion, although Paul Harris was the originator of Rotary, he was not the first president. That distinction went to Silvester Schiele, one of the original four. Paul Harris became the president of Chicago Club No. 1 in 1907. Also in 1907 the first Rotary community project was undertaken -the establishment of public comfort stations in Chicago's City Hall.

Soon to follow was Club No. 2 in San Francisco, then Oakland, followed by Seattle, Los Angeles, New York and Boston. The first Rotary Convention was held in 1910 in Chicago with 29 members present, representing 14 of the 16 organized Rotary Clubs. Like wildfire the movement spread to Canada, England, Ireland, South America, the Philippines and into Asia. Today the idea of Paul Harris and his friends has spread to 184 countries and geographical regions with over 1,157,000 members in over 26,000 clubs.

Statistics of Rotary's tremendous world-wide growth are impressive, but Rotary's accomplishments through the years defy expression in figures. The fellowship created, the improvement in the conduct of business and professions, the playgrounds provided, the crippled children helped, the student loans granted, the community betterment undertakings, the increased understanding among nations, the countless other achievements of Rotary Clubs, and the activities of The Rotary Foundation, all must be considered when viewing the progress of Rotary.

FRANKFORT ROTARY YOUTH FUND MEETS

The Frankfort Rotary Youth Fund met after Rotary on March 25th. Agenda items included reports on this years Golf Scramble, coordination of monies required for the scholarship winners and setting the next meeting.

Tim Fyffe shared plans to have this years Rotary Youth Fund Golf Scramble at the Players Club on US421 between Frankfort and Lexington. The scramble is planned for Tuesday August 4th, 1998 at 1:00 p.m. There will be a shotgun start (Everyone starts at the same time on different holes). Plans are to upgrade the event significantly with food, refreshments and goody bags for participants. MARK YOUR CALENDAR NOW FOR AUGUST 4TH!!!!

President Barry K. Holder made a plea for board members to think big. "We need to expand the tournament and associated fund-raisers so that proceeds from the corpus can fund our scholarship needs", Barry implored the group. There will be a concerted push to attract more corporate sponsors this year. "We have relied on the generosity of our two founding corporate sponsors, but there are many more that have not participated to date. We need to invite our other business members to help!", said Barry.

Ed Speer advised that this years scholarship recipients would have need of the funds by the middle of July in preparation for the fall semester at their chosen institution of higher learning.

The next meeting was set for Thursday April 16th, 1998, 7:00 p.m. at the residence of Ed Dance, 861 Chestnut Drive.
