THIS WEEK IN ROTARY

Bryan Armstrong, this weeks speaker, is director of communications for the Kentucky Community and Technical College System, which includes the University of Kentucky Community College System and Technical Institutions Branch.

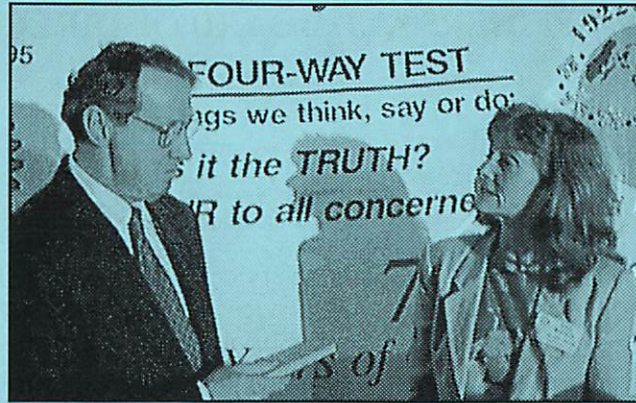

From December 1995 through September 1997, Bryan worked as director of communications for the Cabinet for Workforce Development. He has been involved in numerous education and workforce development projects on behalf of the Patton administration.

Bryan worked in the newspaper industry for more than 15 years for the Kansas City Star, The Cincinnati Post and The Kentucky Post. He held a variety of positions, including reporter, political writer, assistant metro editor, state editor and news editor. He is a graduate of Bowling Green High School and Western Kentucky University.

Bryan is a resident of Franklin County and is involved in numerous activities with his children, including scouting and youth sports. He is married to longtime Frankfort resident Rhonda Whitaker Armstrong. They have two children - Lauren 15, and Seth 11.

ROTARY DISTRICT CONFERENCE PREVIEW

The 6710 Rotary District Conference will be held in Bowling Green April 23-26.

Jerry Barden, RI Director from 1995-1997 will be the RI President's Representative to the Conference. His major address will be to the Saturday evening dinner. Jerry has received the Citation for Meritorious Service from the Rotary Foundation and was awarded the Service Above Self Award in 1993.

Friday's luncheon speaker will be Carol Jordan. Carol serves as Executive Director of the Office of Child Abuse and Domestic Violence Services on Governor Patton's staff.

Mrs. Jo Luck with Heifer, Incorporated in Little Rock, Arkansas will be the speaker at the third plenary session. Jo will be talking about establishing quality livestock herds in the Third World.

The major theme of the conference will of course be Show that Rotary Cares.

Barry Holder congratulating the latest J. Pat Ireland fellow to the Frankfort Rotary Youth Fund, with President Don Armstrong.

THIS WEEK IN ROTARY

Linda Boileau, State Journal political cartoonist, is our speaker on April 15th.

The only female political cartoonist in Kentucky and the editorial cartoonist for the State Journal since October 1980, Boileau has exhibited her work at the Museum of Cartoon Art in San Francisco. Her illustrations for a World War II booklet won first place in the Southeast Museum Design Competition in 1994. Her cartoons are distributed by Rothco Cartoons.

"Linda has a firm grasp of reality and current events that she can turn into an attention-getting editorial cartoon in no time flat. If 'a picture is worth a thousand words,' then Linda should be considered a best-selling author. She's one of the best". ~U.S. Sen. Wendell Ford (D-KY)

BOARD MEETING

The Frankfort Rotary Board of Directors will meet next on Monday April 20th 5:00 p.m. at the Frankfort Plant Board offices.

VOCATIONAL SERVICE

Vocational Service is an obligation that derives from having a classification in Rotary. This Third Avenue of Service was actually one of the founding principles of Paul Harris in 1905 when he met with his fellow business and professional friends and yet, it is the area in which much work is needed. Clubs and members tend to stress and excel in the Club, Community and International Avenues rather than the one that is indigenous to Rotary membership.

The opportunity for the development of Vocational Service has no limits. Perhaps the most widely used approach is having each club member give a 5 minute talk on his/her profession or business about a month after induction. Employer-Employee day is held annually by many clubs - a great way to share Rotary and also foster a potential Additional Active member into the club.

Many clubs are now holding counseling days at the local high school, allowing soon-to-be-graduates to listen and confer with business and professional leaders in the fields they may be interested in. Many clubs are now sponsoring PRIVATE ENTERPRISE seminars for teachers and/or students - a subject so badly needed and so little understood.

A recommended area for Vocational Service is a tour by members of a Rotary Club (as part of or in lieu of their regular meeting) of local industries, hospitals, schools, military installations, etc. This can usually be done by moving the weekly meeting to the location to be visited and having a box lunch or by eating in the facility cafeteria.

These are only a few of the more prevalent ways to implement Vocational Service - with a little thought and imagination, this can be a very delightful image builder for every club.

Basic to Vocational Service is "The Four Way Test" as originated by RI President Herbert J. Taylor. This 24 word test of the things we think, say and do is a convenient and effective instrument of Vocational Service and is more fully described on a later page.

Members are expected to adhere to the "Declaration of Rotarians in Business and Professions" which Rotary has officially adopted to foster high business standards and ethical practices.

We practice Vocational Service in our daily working schedule, but are we not selfish if we don't try to share the Rotary philosophy of fairness and truth with our friends and particularly with the youth of our community?

BOARD MEETING INCLUDES INCOMING DIRECTORS

Rotary Board Meeting for current directors and Incoming directors is scheduled for 5:00 p.m., Monday, April 20, 1998 at the Frankfort Plant Board Conference Room. Enter from the rear parking lot.

YOUR DISTRICT CONVENTION, APRIL 24-26

PDG Len Sherrill reminds you that one of the best ways to know more about Rotary is to attend your Rotary District Convention this weekend, April 24-26 in Bowling Green. If your time is limited, you are welcome to come to only a small part of the conference. Len says the most productive time is between noon Friday and noon Saturday. Contact Barry Holder or Len for more information. Forms will be available at this last Wednesday meeting before the conference.

ROTARY FOUNDATION NEEDS YOUR DONATIONS

The Frankfort Rotary Club's donations this year from July 97 to the Foundation are up to the whopping total of $0. The goal for the entire district of nearly 40 clubs is $80,000. Frankfort has been a leader in giving to the Rotary Foundation for most of its history.

Each current Paul Harris Fellow (PHF) of our club is asked to give at least one extra amount of $100 each. If you are not currently a Paul Harris Fellow, you can also donate $100 if you want to be designated a "Sustaining Paul Harris Fellow" while working toward the $1000 required to have the prestigious recognition of being awarded a Paul Harris Fellow. It's possible that each $100 will be able to be matched to move you to your award more quickly. Make your tax deductible check out to "The Rotary Foundation" and note if it is for either a "sustaining PHF" or and "Extra PHF" (if you have already received a prior PHF. "Show Rotary Cares" and get that check as soon as possible to Paula Rarden, Len Sherrill, or Barry Holder.

Any amount, no matter its size, will be gratefully accepted.

APRIL IS ROTARY MAGAZINE MONTH

THE ROTARIAN magazine is printed at the R.R. Donnelley & Sons plant in Danville, Kentucky.

The first issue of The Rotarian was published in January 1911. This 12-page tabloid was considered the best way to distribute an essay written by Rotary founder Paul Harris. Four thousand copies were made in two printings. Seventeen Nobel Prize winners and 19 Pulitzer Prize winners have written for the magazine.

Today each month, more than 600,000 copies of the magazine are printed mostly in the U.S.A., and are mailed to subscribers in 154 countries and geographical regions where there are Rotary clubs and to five countries where there are no clubs.

Postage, at about $1.5 million a year, is now the largest segment of the magazine's budget, followed closely by paper costs.

In coming months, the magazine will feature articles about computer banking, Alzheimer's disease, classroom cheating, phobias, violence in the workplace, pet power, digital photography, PolioPlus in India, public speaking, management tips, and literacy projects.

VIRTUAL CONFERENCE LINKS ROTARY SCHOLARS IN GLOBAL CHAT

On April 25 at 12 p.m. EDT, Rotary International, the world's largest private provider of international educational scholarships, will hold a state-of-the-art on-line forum linking 500 Rotary scholars from 30 nations. The virtual conference will use the latest Internet technologies to create a global arena where graduate and post-graduate students can discuss challenges and solutions to important world issues.

Each year, approximately 1300 university students are selected by their local Rotary clubs to study abroad and serve as ambassadors of goodwill. Because Rotary International is a humanitarian volunteer organization, scholars are chosen not only for their academic potential, but for their interest in serving the community where they plan to study. The on-line forum marks the first opportunity for Rotary's scholars to interact and share ideas in a group setting. Contact Dean Sorg for more information about this conference or Ambassadorial Scholarships.

April Board of Directors Minutes
Frankfort Electric Plant Board 5 p.m.
Monday, April 20 1998

Attending: Don Armstrong, Ed Dance, Chuck Ellestad, Tim Fyffe, Polly Jo Green, Clay Hulette, Paula Rarden, Dean Sorg and Mary Vaughn; guests were incoming board members Terry Shockley and Ron Tyrer; absent: excused were Perry Ryan and Dave Weller. Armstrong welcomed incoming board members and later charged each director for 1998-99 to start work on committees and appointments which will be covered in detail at the next board meeting. They will be installed by incoming Dist. Gov. Tom on Wednesday, July 1. A letter of thanks from Jim and Sherrill Smith was gratefully received. Armstrong explained that we need to notify guests ASAP for the Rotary Home Stay Program for the Indy Convention.

1. Minutes of the March meeting by Paula Rarden and Dave Weller were approved with the addition that Mary Vaughn should have been listed present; the March financial report by Clay Hulette was approved, including an expenditure of $70 for two Rotary District meeting door prizes. He explained that Cincinnati Reds tickets had already been purchased even though the event (hosted by Frank Sower) is several months away. Hulette also will work with Jim Graves on a budget for the Rotaract Club at KSU. The latest attendance report from Ethel McCray was received along with discussion of the status of dues collection. Copies of the latest Club roster were distributed, showing current strength of 101 members.

2. A membership development committee report was presented by Ed Dance indicating progress on several initiatives including Rotary Information luncheons for recent members and preparations underway with Bill Leroy for a new membership brochure; Mary Vaughn was asked to work with Dean Sorg and Clay Hulette to select a brochure display rack for the registration table. Dean Sorg made several points about the Frankfortarian Newsletter which is headed by Dave Weller. Minutes of the latest World Community Services Committee from Bill Miller were distributed along with mention of the next meeting April 12 at noon. Barry Holder is to be interviewed on Frankfort's Global Connection Tuesday, April 21, for a new role he is taking for RI.

3. Old Business: Rotary raffle door prizes, which are to be included in the Frankfortarian weekly, will be organized by Sgt.-at-Arms Mary Vaughn which will continue to accrue to the general fund. Tim Fyffe reported several projects by the Frankfort Rotary Youth Fund including the most recent minutes available. Rotaract approval by KSU in a letter from Gus Ridgel was also given to the board. Ed Dance and Paula Rarden agreed to arrange door prizes for the district convention at Bowling Green April 23-25. Details of the Nottingham, England GSE Visit May 10-14 were given to the board.

4. New Business: A letter from a Rotary Club in Malawi requesting a stamp raffle was explained by Tim Fyffe who agreed to coordinate with Rotary International on the validity of the request. Mary Vaughn reported that lunch menu suggestions were being coordinated with Cheryl Strock of the Holiday Inn staff. One new member application on behalf of Linda Boileau was approved by the board as reported by Clay Hulette on recommendation by Len Shirrell and Asa Tipton. Tom Snowden, who has been on leave of absence, will be contacted by letter from President Don regarding membership intentions. Dean Sorg explained the Ambassadorial Scholarship application from Mary Kathleen King and made an appeal for additional contributions to the Rotary Foundation this year by Frankfort Rotarians.

5. Other business included restoring the next meeting date for the Rotary Board of Directors at the Electric Plant Board, 5 p.m. on Monday, May 18.

Real Happiness is Helping Others

LETTERS

We would like to express our warmest gratitude for all the Rotary-type concern shown and actions taken by members of 1295 during my long hospitalization and now my continuing recovery at home. We appreciate the prayers, cards, phone calls, visits, food and the handsome planter. Very special thanks to Polly Green and Ron Tyrer. The frequent cards of encouragement were especially appreciated and I now have an extensive and outstanding collection of "autographs" from the distinguished men and women of the Rotary Club of Frankfort! I will be placing these signatures in my personal archives for continued enjoyment with deep appreciation to you all.

Elliott and Mary Jo Jones

INTERNATIONAL DINNER

The Frankfort Rotary Club International Dinner has been tentatively scheduled for 6:30 p.m., Thursday, June 25. Sign up sheet will be available at next weeks club meeting.

Bob Bullock and Jim Richardson present Rotary Foundation checks to President Don Armstrong.

FRANKFORTS GLOBAL CONNECTION

Tuesday May 5th, 7:00 p.m. Frankfort High Students visit Sister City of San Pedro de Macoris.

What does it mean, to do my part when called upon as a member of Rotary?

Rotary club is an organization of civic-minded members.

Rotary membership is built on common values and shared commitments.

The right things happen when we Rotary members show up when and where we are needed.

This community needs Rotarians all sincerely concerned for the needs of others.

Our own lives need the enlightenment, joy and pleasure of accomplishing things together.

Rotary service is more than giving money.

To be real, service is measured by the extent of your outreach -- it must include your own honest sweat.

It is not the solitary act of any Rotarian, no matter how dedicated, no matter how great.

It is the collective effort of many quality members, people acting in concert with each other.

But, if it is to be, it is up to me.
