NEXT WEEK IN ROTARY...

The speaker will be Dr. Jim Sullivan, a native of Frankfort, who graduated from Franklin County High School in 1979. He then attended Xavier University in Cincinnati, Ohio. After graduating Cum Laude with honors from Palmer College of Chiropractic in 1985, he earned a Diplomate in the Bioenergetic Synchronization Technique in 1994. Dr. Sullivan was named Chiropractor of the Year in the Mortar Health System for 1996, and has been in private practice in Kentucky since 1986.

Opening Exercises: Alan Hamilton
Greeters: Jim Wolcott

Honored Attendee: RI President James L. Lacy & Claudine

An Interesting Thought...

You always think I'm greener elsewhere, said the Grass, Well, sometimes I am.
— from High Kukus, by James Broughton

Capitol City Rotary Club

The Capitol City Rotary Club will meet during the month of April in the "Old Capitol Room" on the second floor of the Completely Kentucky building on Broadway at 6:30 p.m., but will NOT meet April 29th.

Richard Taylor, Kentucky Poet Laureate

You are cordially invited to the Induction Ceremony of Dr. Richard Taylor as the 1999-2000 Poet Laureate of Kentucky, to be held on Friday, April 23, 1999, at 11:00 a.m. in the Rotunda of the (new) State Capitol. A reception will follow.

COMMITTEE POSITIONS OPEN

As President-elect Polly Jo Green and her officers and four directors prepare for next year, there are a number of committee chairs still open. If you think you might be interested, please talk to one of the following 1999-2000 Officers:

President Polly Jo Green
President Elect Bill Miller
Secretary-Treasurer Clay Hulette
Sergeant-at-Arms Pete Walsh
Dir, Club Service Terry Shockley
Dir, Community Service Mary Vaughn
Dir, Vocational Service Tom Utterback
Dir, International Service Greg Fuchs

Since many Rotary International positions are for a one year term, and we follow suit in our club, the July Program Chair and the Frankfortarian Editor need to be appointed soon, so that we will have July programs and newsletters. Please volunteer.

2nd Annual Rotary International Dinner

The Frankfort Rotary Club's 2nd Annual International Dinner will be held on Thursday evening, May 20, 1999, at the Capitol Plaza Holiday Inn. The cost will be $20.00 for each member and guest. Dr. John Stempel, Director of the Patterson School of Diplomacy and International Commerce, will speak on "International Hotspots". Get your reservations in early to either Charlie Hinds or Paula Rarden.

OUR INTERNATIONAL RESPONSIBILITIES:

As an international organization, Rotary offers each member unique opportunities and responsibilities unlike those of other groups one might join. Although each Rotarian has first responsibility to uphold the obligations of citizenship of his or her own country, membership in Rotary enables Rotarians to take a somewhat different view of international affairs. In the early 1950s a Rotary philosophy was adopted to describe how a Rotarian may think on a global basis. Here is what it said:

"A world-minded Rotarian: looks beyond national patriotism and considers himself as sharing responsibility for the advancement of international understanding, goodwill and peace, resists any tendency to act in terms of national or racial superiority; seeks and develops common grounds for agreement with peoples of other lands; defends the rule of law and order to preserve the liberty of the individual so that he may enjoy freedom of thought, speech and assembly, and freedom from persecution, aggression, want and fear; supports action directed toward improving standards of living for all peoples, realizing that poverty anywhere endangers prosperity everywhere; upholds the principles of justice for mankind; strives always to promote peace between nations and prepares to make personal sacrifices for that ideal; urges and practices a spirit of understanding of every other man's beliefs as a step toward international goodwill, recognizing that there are certain basic moral and spiritual standards which will ensure a richer, fuller life."

That is quite an assignment for any Rotarian to practice in thoughts and actions!

Board Meeting Monday

The next meeting of the Frankfort Rotary Club Board of Directors will be held Monday April 19th at 5:00 p.m., in the Community Room, 2nd floor, of the First Federal Savings Bank.

Richard Taylor, Kentucky Poet Laureate

You are cordially invited to the Induction Ceremony of Dr. Richard Taylor as the 1999-2000 Poet Laureate of Kentucky, to be held on Friday, April 23, 1999 at 11:00 a.m. in the Rotunda of the (new) State Capitol. A reception will follow.

Rotary Youth Fund Golf Scramble

Need someone who would be willing to act as Event Secretary. Duties would be to document activities, players, sponsors, etc. as mailing lists. This is not a year around activity, but we would like to have someone who would be willing to do it for several years in a row. A working knowledge of MS Word and MS Excel would be very helpful. Please contact "RB" Brown (Office: 875.1301; cell 418.0227; home: 875.4794; e-mail:) if you can help or know someone willing to help.

Report on a "make-up" in Bermuda

Dean Sorg was kind enough to bring back a copy of the newsletter of the Hamilton Rotary Club of Bermuda. Interestingly enough, they have a different program Chair each week, and publish a list each week of the next six weeks Speaker, Topic, Introducer, and Thanker. Dean lost out on a prize for the visitor who came the most distance to some gentlemen from Scotland and Wales.

The Rotary 2000 Theme will be: Act with Consistency, Credibility, and Continuity.

2nd Annual Rotary International Banquet

The International Committee of the Frankfort Rotary Club has revived the annual social occasion of the club, a dinner, which traditionally for years came at the end of the Rotary year. Members, spouses, guests, and Rotarians and spouses from clubs from both Rotary districts will be gathering at the Capital Plaza Holiday Inn at 6:30 p.m., Thursday, May 20. Fellowship, music, dinner, and an update on the Hotspots of the World by Patterson School Director

Dr. John Stemple offer an evening of education and entertainment which Rotarians will not want to miss. Dinner: $20.00 for Rotarians, spouses, and guests. Make check out to Frankfort Rotary Club.

Declaration of Rotarians in Business and Professions

As a Rotarian engaged in a business or profession, I am expected to:

- 1) Consider my vocation to be another opportunity to serve;
- 2) Be faithful to the letter and to the spirit of the ethical codes of my vocation, to the laws of my country, and to the moral standards of my community;
- 3) Do all in my power to dignify my vocation and to promote the highest ethical standards in my chosen vocation;
- 4) Be fair to my employer, employees, associates, competitors, customers, the public, and all those with whom I have a business or professional relationship;
- 5) Recognize the honor and respect due to all occupations which are useful to society;
- 6) Offer my vocational talents: to provide opportunities for young people, to work for the relief of the special needs of others, and to improve the quality of life in my community;
- 7) Adhere to honesty in my advertising and in all representations to the public concerning my business or profession;
- 8) Neither seek from nor grant to a fellow Rotarian a privilege or advantage not normally accorded others in a business or professional relationship.

NEXT WEEK IN ROTARY...

Frankfort High Drama Club to perform

Karen Kimmel is bringing to the club selections from the FHS Senior play, "The Beverly Hill Billies", as well as two of her students who won drama scholarships presenting the scene that each did to win their scholarships.

May program co-chairs Richard Taylor and Ann Wingrove will present on May 26th the duo of Johanna Hay and Greg Pond performing Celtic music. (Ed. note: This will be a real treat.)

The May 12th program will be the GSE team, and the May 19th meeting has been cancelled in favor of the International Dinner.

AN INTERESTING THOUGHT

There will be time, said the Grandfather Clock, for whatever there will be time for. —from High Kukus, by James Broughton

ROTARY INTERNATIONAL DINNER

The 2nd International Dinner at the Holiday Inn / Capitol Plaza initiated by the Frankfort Rotary Club is supported widely throughout both Rotary Districts of Kentucky. There are still table seatings available. Dr. Michael Desch, Associate Director of UK's School of Diplomacy and International Commerce, will be bringing us up-to-date on "International Hotspots". The dinner is priced at $20.00 per Rotarian and guest, which is preceded by a social half hour beginning at 6:30 p.m. Get your reservations in early. — Charlie Hinds

NO LUNCH MEETING WEDNESDAY MAY 19

SCHOLARSHIP JUDGES

Ed Speer needs Rotarians to judge the scholarship applications. They will meet on Wednesday, May 12th. Please contact if you would like to help. This can be an extremely rewarding experience.

OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

First. The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

Second. High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

Third. The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

Fourth. The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

Thank You, Lord

Even though I clutch my blanket and growl when the alarm rings, thank you, Lord, that I can hear. — There are many who are deaf.

Even though I keep my eyes closed against the morning light as long as possible, thank you, Lord, that I can see. — Many are blind.

Even though I huddle in my bed and put off rising, thank you Lord, that I have the strength to rise. — There are many who are bedridden.

Even though the first hour of my day is hectic, when socks are lost, toast is burned and tempers are short, my children are so loud, thank you, Lord, for my family. — There are many who are lonely.

Even though our breakfast table never looks like the pictures in magazines and the menu is at times balanced, thank you, Lord, for the food we have. — There are many who are hungry.

Even though the routine of my job is often monotonous, thank you, Lord, for the opportunity to work. — There are many who have no job.

Even though I grumble and bemoan my fate from day to day and wish my circumstances were not so modest, thank you, Lord, for life.

If we can pass this on to most people we know, it might help a bit to make this world a better place to live in, right?

Pass it on.....
