Next Week's Speaker...

Joel Schrader will be the speaker at the August 14 Rotary meeting. Joel is owner and designer of Joel Schrader Web Design here in Frankfort, which opened in June 2000. He has created and managed web sites for both commercial and political interests. Examples include, www.frankfort-grandtheatre.org, www.kentuckybooks.com, and www.belleviewcondo.com.

Joel was Senior Duty Officer at the 24-Hour Operation Center, Central Intelligence Agency Langley, Virginia. He managed an 11-person team responsible for providing all-source information on national security matters to the Director of the Central Intelligence Agency.

He also provided accurate, comprehensive, and timely all-source information on national security matters to Director of the Central Intelligence Agency; filtered and processed time-critical incoming classified information for delivery to senior Agency officials, key Intelligence Community officers and other US Government agencies; managed quick turnaround responses to field operatives in support of crisis situations such as terrorist attacks, drug interdiction, and foreign military actions; and trained staff officers in 24-hour Watch Office procedures.

Joel was Senior Duty Officer, CIA Representative in the White House Situation Room, National Security Council (NSC) in Washington, DC from January 1998 to March 2000. There he managed a 4-person team responsible for preparing summaries of world events for the President, Vice-President, and National Security Council officials; briefed top White House and NSC officials including National Security Advisor and Vice President on breaking foreign events; coordinated the President's telephone calls to other world leaders and acted as note-taker.

Also at the Central Intelligence Agency in Langley, he was an Analyst on Europe from August 1991 to December 1995. Duties included generating and researching timely articles, reports, and tasking on European leaders and other national security matters; initiating and organizing Intelligence Community conference on Spanish leadership issues. He was awarded an Exceptional Performance Award.

Associations include: Leadership Frankfort Program, Frankfort-Area Chamber of Commerce, Bridgeport Ruritan Club and the Frankfort Kiwanis Club.

This Week's Speaker...

Cris Gorman, former Attorney General of Kentucky, was guest speaker at the August 7 Rotary Club meeting. Gorman is well known in Frankfort. A graduate of the University of Kentucky Law School, he served as the attorney-general of the Commonwealth (1992-96). Gorman told Rotarians of his desire to again be a candidate for the office of attorney general. He related his qualifications for the position and noted some of the people who inspired him to seek that office. He spoke fondly of the late Bert Combs, and how as a boy he listened to Combs' advice. Gorman also told of his respect for former governor Edward T. Breathitt. Gorman related some sound advice for political hopefuls: Treat everyone with respect. He went on to say that he learned from the elder statesmen of Kentucky how to help as many people as possible, although resources were limited. In closing, Gorman spoke of his upcoming candidacy for attorney general and how he knew that this position was the one he had trained for throughout his career.

Golf Scramble Draws 55 Players

Frankfort Rotary held its annual Golf Scramble Tuesday, July 30, at the Ducker's Lake golf course, an 18-hole event that drew 55 players onto a sun-dried course.

Despite the warmth of the weather, Scramble Chair Ed Dance was able to report a cool profit of just over $7,000, although the accounting was not final. Adding to the participants' fees were corporate sponsors — Level One was RB Brown Insurance and Walmart, while Level Two was the State Journal and BellSouth.

Top scorers (net) were the four-man squad of Richard Boyer, Dennis VanHorn, Pete Walsh and Larry Arnett, who turned in a net of 68 on the day.

Receiving praise for their efforts were Walsh, in charge of the buffet dinner; Sara Gowins, registration; and Ron Christopher, prizes.

After giving his well-applauded report, Ed Dance was named as July Rotarian of the Month by President Christopher. Dance has also been the program chair for July, presenting his final program Wednesday featuring Bill Miller and Lee Troutwein. Miller showed slides of the recent Sister Cities visit to San Pedro de Macoris.

Awards Presented

Outgoing Frankfort Rotary President Terry Shockley was the official representative of the local club for the 2002 International Convention of Rotary, which concluded last month at Barcelona, Spain. President Christopher presented a certificate from RI to Shockley in commemoration of the event. Also given RI recognition was our District Governor-Select Bill Miller.

Russians Here Aug. 23

International Service Director Chris Richards announced that a group of dairy farmers from Russia will be visiting Frankfort soon. The trip is scheduled to stop here Friday, Aug. 23, Richards said. Although there was no direct connection, Chris was pictured during the day's program as she attempted to climb a coconut tree during the International visit to the Dominican Republic. Afterward she said the milk wasn't all that good, sticky and messy to drink — she fed her coconut to the local hogs, she said.

Rotary Raffle Sponsored by Brown and Homepro

Wednesday's Rotary Club Raffle was sponsored by RB Brown and Homepro Company, a new tenant at the RB Brown Building. Homepro is a privately- and locally-owned home improvement company.

In this era of oft-heard complaints about "box stores" with no personal service, here is an opportunity to support a local small business.

They have a website at www.homepros.win.net. Tom and Jennie Robinson are the owners.

Next Week's Speaker...

As Kentucky's 44th Auditor of Public Accounts, Ed Hatchett has a reputation for independence, for challenging the status quo, and for using state-of-the-art technology to protect taxpayers' money. In fact, Hatchett has been an innovator in public protection: In 1991 he became one of three banking commissioners in Kentucky history, and the first in thirty years, to be appointed by two governors. In 1992 the John F. Kennedy School at Harvard University honored his introduction of expert system technology in assuring bank soundness; In 1999, he became the first Auditor of Public Accounts in Kentucky history to run unopposed for, and be elected to, a second consecutive term of office.

Hatchett has initiated performance audits that have found over $313 million in savings and missed opportunities in such areas as tax collection, Medicaid, state investments, school districts, and public universities. He is the first Kentucky Auditor of Public Accounts to review the performance of the state's $20+ billion in public retirement plans. In 1998 Hatchett became the first Auditor in the state's history to issue a qualified opinion on the Commonwealth's annual financial statements.

In his audits of government agencies and public education, Auditor Hatchett has centered on sound business practices, and has demanded effective cash, funding, and investment management. He has referred over 155 audits to law enforcement entities, ethics boards, or other regulatory agencies for further investigation or prosecution. By equipping his auditors with the latest computers and software, by subjecting them to rigorous training, by emphasizing teamwork, and by measuring and rewarding performance, Hatchett has improved both efficiency and effectiveness.

A native of Barren County, Ed Hatchett is a graduate of Centre College. He received his law degree from the University of Louisville School of Law. He was a lawyer and trust and investments manager in Glasgow before becoming banking commissioner. He and his wife, Dr. Judith Hatchett, Chair of the Arts and Humanities Program at Midway College, live in Frankfort. They have two daughters in college and a son at home.

This Week's Speaker...

The Frankfort Rotary Club welcomed Derrick Graham of Frankfort as their guest speaker on August 21, 2002. Graham is the Democratic candidate for the 57th District of the Kentucky State Legislature. He is a 1980 cum laude graduate of Kentucky State University and received his Master of Arts Degree in Political Science from Ohio State University in 1982. He has held positions in the Department of Corrections as an instructor, and in the Department of Human Resources. He served as an adjunct professor at Kentucky State University and as a social studies teacher at Frankfort High School since 1985. He and his wife Mildred Tompkins Graham have two daughters. Graham was elected to the Frankfort Board of Commissioners in 1992 and served as mayor pro-tem. Active in a number of social and community organizations, he told Rotarians that he felt qualified for the position of legislator because of his background. He said he was dedicated and competent to do the job. He also asked his audience whether they wished a known, or an unknown person to serve in the legislature.

Family picnic scheduled for Oct. 6

It's the all-American Family Picnic time — or it soon will be, and now's the time to mark your calendar. Lee Troutwine, perennial host for the fun outing, has announced the date as Sunday, Oct. 6, from 1:30 to 4 p.m.

In case you don't remember, the meat course is provided by the Frankfort Rotary Club and those who attend (the more the better) are to bring their special picnic dish or fixin's. Kids, wives, sweethearts and especially grandchildren are welcome. The spread will be put on about 2 o'clock.

A special feature, Lee promises, is a course in how to use a canoe on Elkhorn Creek without actually going in the water. Experienced crew are Joe Russell Johnson and Dean Sorg, both of whom have merit badges in how to get the most fun out of a canoe experience. Names will be gathered closer to the event, but make plans now for a family outing.

Next Week's Speaker...

Tom Leach, Radio Personality

Tom Leach, Sports Director for Clear Channel Radio of Lexington and co-host of the morning show on WLAP (AM 630), will be the speaker at the September 4 meeting of the Frankfort Rotary Club.

Leach's professional duties include play-by-play announcer for University of Kentucky football and basketball broadcasts on radio. He is also a freelance television producer and writer for thoroughbred racing projects.

Tom Leach began a career in radio at age 16 in 1977 in his hometown of Paris, KY. Working for a small radio station, he did a little bit of everything; from play-by-play to serving as a DJ to selling and writing commercials to news. He later worked in radio in Mt. Sterling before coming to Lexington in 1984, joining the UK radio network in 1989. He was named to the football PBP job in 1997 and basketball in 2001. Tom graduated from Bourbon County High School (3.9 GPA/ 3rd in class) and the University of Kentucky (3.7 GPA)

Tom's award include:

Kentucky Sportscaster of the Year, 1997; and the Eclipse Award for Radio Achievement (coverage of thoroughbred racing), 1993 and 1999 Associated Press of Kentucky, Best Play-by-Play, 1995 several statewide AP awards for best sports-cast and best feature stories Kentucky Press Association/Best Local Sports Column—Weekly Division, 1999

He is married to Robyn Rabbeth Leach (former news anchor at WLEX-TV of Lexington). They have two children: Connor, age 9 and Caroline, age 3.

This Week's Speaker...

Ed Hatchett, Auditor of Public Accounts was the guest speaker at the Frankfort Rotary Club's August 28, 2002 meeting. A native of Barren County, Hatchett graduated from Centre College. He received his law degree from the University of Louisville. He is married to Dr. Judith Hatchett who serves as the chair of the Arts and Humanities Program at Midway College. The Hatchetts have three children. A champion of sound business practices, Hatchett has been honored on several occasions for his innovative approach to protecting the public interest. He is now in a unprecedented second term as Auditor. His audits have realized over $313 million in savings and collections. He has refereed over 155 audits, improved effectiveness and efficiency of the auditing process. He also is the first Kentucky Auditor of Public Accounts to review the performance of the state's over 20 billion dollar public retirement plans. Hatchett has an excellent reputation as a public servant and is considered by many to be a rising star in Kentucky government.

Well Put...

The higher we soar the smaller we appear to those who cannot fly. - Friedrich Wilhelm Nietzsche, philosopher (1844-1900)

Take time to deliberate, but when the time for action arrives, stop thinking and go in. - Andrew Jackson

Action is the antidote to despair. - Joan Baez

By three methods we may learn wisdom: First, by reflection, which is noblest; second by imitation, which is easiest; and third by experience, which is bitterest. - Confucius

The wise man doesn't give the right answers, he poses the right questions. - Claude Levi-Strauss

Looking back on my life, I wish I'd stepped forward and made a fool of myself more often when I was younger- because when you do, you find out you can do it. - William Sessions
