Next Week's Meeting...

Sherry L. Williams, New Leaf Resources

While the workplace may not seem to be an appropriate place to grieve, grief knows no boundaries. In fact, recent research shows that grief costs the workplace approximately $37 billion a year in a variety of ways: poor concentration and difficulty making decisions, loss of productivity, frustration and irritability, increase in accidents, disinterest in job-related details, increase in absenteeism and or tardiness, mood swings and detachment, as well as marital and family problems. Sherry L. Williams, a Grief Management Specialist from New Leaf Resources in Louisville, KY, will discuss ways employers can work with employees and provide on the job support that enables bereaved employees to heal and once again become productive and invested in the work environment.

VFW Make-Up Meeting

The monthly make-up meeting will be Monday, November 7th at the VFW on Second Street, 11:45 a.m. to 12:45 p.m. Dennis VanHorn will present the program.

Board Action

The board approved "Members in good standing who are unable to attend regular meetings for an extended period of time due to injury or infirmity may request Board approval of Cable 10 Make-Up Meetings. Following Board approval, the member should mail or email a statement to the club secretary each week indicating the Wednesday date of the regular meeting that has been viewed. The usual rules regarding the timing of permitted make-ups apply."

Approved new member Zach Moore contingent upon no negative response from membership after publication.

This Week's Speaker...

The speaker for the day was David Orange, Executive Director of the Employee Support of the Guard and Reserve. The purpose of his organization is to provide free education, consultation if necessary, and mediation for employers of Guard and Reserve employees. The goal is to support America's employers who share employees with the nation to ensure national security. The ESGR programs include employer outreach, military unit liaison and ombudsman programs.

Community Food Drive

It is that time of year again when we assist the Kiwanis Club in their annual Community Food Drive. This year the drive is set for Friday, November 18 and Saturday, November 19. If you would like to help in this important event, please sign-up with Joe Johnson at the registration desk the next two Wednesdays.

Rotary UNICEF Report

To date, $510.09 has been collected in Rotary's UNICEF drive - much of it collected in nickels, dimes, and quarters. $25 of this amount has been designated by the donor for Katrina relief with the balance going to PolioPlus.

Rotary Profile...

Charles Hinds was born in Henderson, Kentucky but has also lived in Mississippi and Chicago. He is the son of a Baptist minister. He received an AB with High Distinction and two MAAs. He completed the coursework for a Ph.D. at the University of Kentucky and holds a Certificate in Archival Administration from American University. Charlie played football and basketball in high school and was a member of the L&N Railroad baseball team. He is licensed as a ham radio operator and enjoys playing bridge and poker. He spent 12 years in accounting for the L&N Railroad, and was a teacher at Male High School. He served seven Kentucky governors as head of three state agencies and on a cabinet level. He is married to Doris. They have a son, Joe, who is retired from the Air Force as a Lt. Col. and presently is a Sr. Attorney at the Airforce Base in Dayton, Ohio. His grandson, John, is a Secret Service Agent, stationed in Washington, D.C. As a combat veteran, he served in seven campaigns in North Africa, Sicily, and in Europe. He was on Security Duty at two WWII Conferences, Casablanca, and Potsdam. He was a General Patton Army scout, chosen with others, to ride for his tanks. He is a Past President of the Frankfort Rotary Club.

Next Week's Meeting...

Bill Fox, Greenheck Fan Corporation

Bill is presently the Manager of Frankfort Operations for Greenheck Fan Corp. here in Frankfort. Greenheck Fan Corp. is a leader in the institutional, commercial and industrial air movement and control industry.

A native of Sioux Falls, South Dakota, Bill graduated from South Dakota School of Mines & Technology with a B.S. degree in Mechanical Engineering. Following graduation, he worked for Trane Co. in Lacrosse, Wisconsin for seven years. While at Trane, he worked in Manufacturing Engineering and Production Management. When he left Trane he was in charge of a 600-person factory.

Bill started with Greenheck Fan Corp. in the spring of 1979 as Production Manager. Since that time, he has held several different manufacturing management positions in GFC before moving to Kentucky in 1999. While in these positions, he became certified in pre-determined time standards, participated in several successful union contract negotiations and managed the scheduling of the Wisconsin Facilities.

Corporate headquarters for GFC is located in Schofield, Wisconsin. When Bill started with GFC, the annual sales were $15M. Since that time, GFC has grown to $300M. The Frankfort facility opened in August of 1996 with about 24 employee/owners. Presently there are about 150 employee/owners in Frankfort.

Bill has two children and four grandchildren who live in Wisconsin. He also is a past "Big Brother," strong Green Bay Packer fan and enjoys golf. In addition to his job at GFC, Bill has participated in the Industrial Round Table and has been on the Board of Directors of FHI for 5 years. He is the past President of FHI.

This Week's Speaker...

The speaker for the day was Sherry L. Williams who spoke about her work with New Leaf Resources, which deals with, and attempts to manage issues associated with grief and loss in the workplace. This involves not only grief over the loss of a loved one but also divorce and even the loss of a pet. She stressed the need for employers to have Grief Recovery programs since grief costs industry an estimated $300 billion per year when all the hidden costs are considered which include the employees' ability to perform in the workplace, company finances, physical injuries due to grief, and all other physical problem affecting performance in the workplace such as obesity, alcohol abuse, and depression. Employers must learn to empathize with and support employees who experience grief and losses of many kinds.

Rotary Profile: Joyce Honaker

Joyce Honaker is one of our new members, having joined the club a year ago this month. Although a new member she has been very active and did a lot of work on our last golf scramble. Joyce was born and raised in Athens, Ohio and graduated from Athens High School. After high school she went to Miami University (Ohio) receiving a B.A. in International Studies. She then went on to Indiana University for a M.A. and a PhD candidacy in political science. She has lived in Frankfort since 1971. Somewhere along the line she stopped for breath and managed to get married. Ask her about her unusual talent of "mirror writing & reading." She loves photography and has been known to sing a few bars. Joyce retired from the Legislative Research Commission where she served as Committee Staff Administrator as well as having held several other executive positions. Her most notable achievement was a legislative staff award for professional development work in the USA, Namibia, Nigeria and Hong Kong. Husband Mack is a retired Optometrist.

RI switches convention host cities

from www.rotary.org

The RI Board of Directors has chosen Salt Lake City, Utah as the site for 2007 RI Convention, slated for the state-of-the-art Salt Palace Convention Center, from 17-20 June.

The 3 November decision by the Board essentially switches New Orleans, now designated to host the convention in 2011, with Salt Lake City.

In August, Hurricane Katrina not only destroyed much of the New Orleans infrastructure, but also jeopardized the ability of local Rotary clubs to organize and host such a large-scale, international meeting. The switch gives New Orleans Rotary members ample time to rebuild their lives and businesses without taking on the formidable task of planning and hosting an international convention.

Next Week's Meeting...

Dwight A. Moody is an author, preacher, and theologian. For seven years he has served as Dean of the Chapel at Georgetown College. In that capacity, he directs the vocation program of the College focused on the Center for Calling and Career. He also teaches in the Religion Department (New Testament, Preaching, and Theology). Dr. Moody writes a weekly newspaper and website column on Religion and American Life. A collection of these columns will be published later this year. It will be his third book. Dr. Moody is a graduate of Georgetown College and holds the PhD degree in systematic theology. He has taught at Duquesne University and LaRoche College in Pittsburgh and also at Kentucky Wesleyan College in Owensboro. An ordained minister, he has served congregations in Indiana, Pennsylvania and Kentucky. He is married and the father of three grown children.

This Week's Speaker...

Bill Fox, Manager of Frankfort Operations of Wisconsin-based Greenheck Fan Corporation, described his company's national and international operations, focusing on how Greenheck and other industries benefit the local community. Greenheck is one of only 500 unionized Employee Stock Ownership Plan companies in the U.S. In addition to a commitment to providing its local employee/owners with good wages, benefits, and training opportunities, Greenheck provides work for supplier companies, including Frankfort Habilitation. Greenheck's employee/owners raised almost $12,000 for the United Way this year (with Bill's employees-shaved head to prove it!). Rotarian Ed Dance noted that Greenheck was also a sponsor of the 2005 Rotary Golf Scramble. This week's Literacy Program book selection, "Thanksgiving Wish" was donated to the Beverly Health and Rehabilitation Center in honor of Mr. Fox's presentation.

Rotary Profile

Tom Braun was born and raised in Frankfort. He graduated from Frankfort High School in the late forties, thence on to a career in higher education. Tom has a B.S. from Kentucky State College, Masters in Business Administration, UK, Doctorate in Organization & Administration, UK, and post-graduate in computer science, EKU. He has been Chairman, Dean & V.P. of Academic Affairs, Executive Director of Council on Higher Education as well as doing a lot of computer stuff. With all of the above, Tom is no more adept at winning the weekly raffle than the rest of us. He is always first to buy his tickets – so we know that's not working! Sgt. Richard thinks, because Tom is a doctor, he should be able to help him with his bad ankle. Tom has the distinction of being Lee Troutwine's step-father. He has been a Rotarian going on five years and never misses a meeting. His most notable accomplishment was planning and directing implementing the Kentucky Educational Computer Network and finding and marrying his soulmate – not necessarily in that order. Tom played baseball and basketball in school and keeps fit doing things out on the farm next to Elkhorn Creek.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!

Bill Fox, manager of Frankfort operations for Greenheck Fan Corp, proudly displays the book, Thanksgiving Wish, which the club donated to the Beverly Retirement Community in his honor.

Scenes from the November
VFW Make-up Meeting

Director of Community Service Dennis Van Horn provided the program for the November VFW meeting. Dennis talked about the wide range of activities that the Frankfort Rotary Club conducts to benefit our community.

Gus Ridgel frequently attends the VFW meetings, which are usually held on the first Monday of each month.

President-elect Carol Palmore enjoyed hearing about Bill Elam's weekend trip. Bill enjoyed the indian summer weekend riding his motorcycle along the Blue Ridge Parkway.

Bill Cull, Save the Grand Project

Bill Cull is an attorney and developer headquartered in Frankfort, and is also the President of Save the Grand Theatre, Inc. He is originally from Harrodsburg, Kentucky, is a graduate of Centre College and the University of Kentucky Law School.

His early career in State Government involved employment with the Legislative Research Commission, positions of Deputy Counsel for Governors Carroll and Brown, and General Counsel in the Commerce Cabinet for Governor Brown. Thereafter, he spent 11 years with Wilkinson Enterprises as its Secretary and General Counsel and three years as Vice President, and then President of Concept, Inc., a private prison company. He then went on his own and developed and co-owned Microtel Inns (budget motels) in Kentucky and Indiana, and is a member of CMB Development Company, which develops residential communities in Jefferson and Shelby counties. He is also Chairman of AutoMon Corporation, a law enforcement technology software and hardware company headquartered in Scottsdale, Arizona.

He lives at 503 Murray Street in South Frankfort and his office is located downtown at 210 Washington Street. He is married to Marie Alagia Cull, also an attorney, and has one daughter, Emma, and one grandson, Isaiah.

Rotary Profile: Bob Johnston

You all know Bob Johnston as our current, outstanding Club President. Some things you might not know "About Bob." Bob was born in Murray, Kentucky lo these many years ago, and under mysterious circumstances moved with family, to the little town of Benton. There he grew up and was graduated from high school. He went back to Murray to attend Murray State College. He graduated, we assume, as an outstanding student and thereafter moved to Frankfort to get on with his life. Sometime later he attended Eastern Kentucky University, got married, and started a family. We are not sure what Bob did in State government, but he carried on until 2000 when he retired to pursue other interests. He is now Vice President and Chief Operating Officer at the Association of Independent Kentucky Colleges & Universities. There are 19 campuses in the group. He is active in a number of national organizations as well as being active in the community. A busy man, he still finds time to follow sports, be with family and preside as President of Frankfort Rotary. Bob and his wife, Gayla, have two grown sons, Brian and Chad. Bob is most proud having been the founding president of the Frankfort/Franklin County Soccer Alliance, and the high school soccer facility at Capital View Park that he helped build. Bob does a great job presiding at our meetings although he is a "thorn in the side" of Sgt. at Arms Richard!

International Dinner

The 9th International Dinner will be on Thursday, February 16, 2006 at the Frankfort Country Club. Dr. Paul Rader, former leader of the Salvation Army International and currently President of Asbury College, is our speaker. The International Dinner Committee is looking for Rotarians to sponsor KSU and local high school international students as guests for the dinner at a cost of $25 per student. Mark your calendars and please contact Joyce Honaker to sponsor an international student.

Aye Murayana, an exchange student from Japan hosted by Greg Fuchs and his family, was presented with the book "Kentucky." She celebrated her 18th birthday on November 26.

Pete Walsh, Alice Hobson and Stan Betsworth enjoy the traditional joint meeting between the Frankfort Rotary Club and the Frankfort Kiwanis Club.

President of Frankfort Kiwanis, Sam Bryant, chats with Alice Hobson.

The speaker of the day, Dwight A. Moody, had a book placed in his honor at the First Baptist Church Medical Clinic.

VFW Makeup Meeting

The December makeup meeting will be at the VFW on Second and Capital Ave., Monday Dec. 5 from 11:45 am to 12:45pm. Rotarian Bill Elam will present the program.

Community Food Drive

A big thank you to the following Rotarians who participated in the Community Food Drive: Jonathan Mangin, Don Dykman, Larry Arnett, Joyce Honaker, and Joe Johnson

Bell-Ringing

We have 39 total slots to fill for the bell-ringing on December 17 and of those 18 have already been filled. The remaining slots are at Wal-Mart and Kroger East – both doors at both locations. Please sign up with Joe Johnson at the registration desk the next two Wednesdays.

This Week's Speaker...

The speaker for the day was Bill Cull, president of Save the Grand. He stated that his organization acquired the building which housed the old Grand Theatre in January of this year and it is intended to be a multi-purpose performing arts center and not just a movie theater. It is located on the St Clair Mall. Many fundraising events have been held at the Grand to raise money for its renovation and interested persons may purchase a chair which will have their name on a plaque on that chair. The decision was made to renovate the building incrementally to determine exactly the type of arts center the community wants. Rotarians are encouraged to participate with both donations and "sweat equity" toward the successful renovation of this unique asset in downtown Frankfort.

"Shakespeare and McBeth, Behind the Scenes" was donated to the library at Frankfort High School in honor of our speaker as a part of the Club's Community Literacy Project.

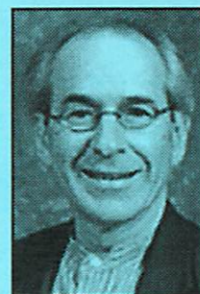

Family Court Toy Drive

Club members are once again offered the opportunity to support the Franklin County Family Court by donating unwrapped stuffed animals, basketballs, soccer balls and footballs. These items will be given away throughout the year to children spending time in the Family Court facility. Collection will be during the meeting on December 14 Rotary meeting.

Final UNICEF Report

With the additional donations since the last report, the final UNICEF report shows total donations of $594.34.

Rotary Profile: Terry Magel

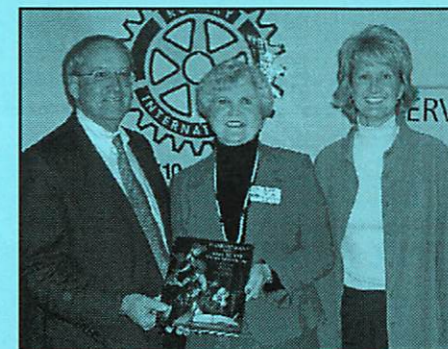

Dr. E. Terry Magel has been an administrator for Kentucky State University for 17 years and is known in baseball parlance as a "utility infielder". He has held numerous academic positions which include: Chairperson of the Computer Science Department, Interim Dean of the College of Professional Studies,

Interim Vice President of Academic Affairs and Director of Continuing and Distance Education. While at KSU, he has been a successful grant writer having been awarded Federal Government funding in excess of $1.7 million. He is currently managing a $196,000 grant from the US Department of Agriculture to develop a Geographic Information Systems Information and Training and Research Center. He was sponsored by Dr. Thomas Braun and serves on the International committee coordinating high school participation in the World View Conference sponsored by the Patterson School at UK. He has been an enthusiastic bell ringer for the Salvation Army and has served for five years as program evaluator for the United Way and is a board member of the Thorn Hill Education Center and secretary of the Kentucky Association for Continuing Higher Education. He is married to the lovely and musically talented Sandra Parker, and has one daughter living in California with two exceptional grandchildren. As a professional medical team, his daughter and her husband own and operate "NeuImage," an aesthetic beauty spa in Dana Point, California. A struggling golfer, Terry shot a career-low 77 on August 27, 2005 at the Frankfort Country Club. It was an exhilarating and memorable round, but unfortunately he was playing alone with none of his usual golfing comrades who would have been amazed at this hidden talent. Only two unwitting witnesses could attest to his prowess as they cheered his birdie on the par-5 18th hole. This short-lived recognition came to an abrupt end when he entered his score in the GHIN national database. Given his normal handicap, the computer coughed up a warning message requesting a special verification that this low score was indeed entered correctly!

International Dinner

The 9th International Dinner will be on Thursday, February 16, 2006 at the Frankfort Country Club. Dr. Paul Rader, former leader of the Salvation Army International and current President of Asbury College, is our speaker.
