Family Court Toy Drive

Club members are once again offered the opportunity to support the Franklin County Family Court by donating unwrapped stuffed animals, basketballs, soccer balls and footballs. These items will be given away throughout the year to children spending time in the Family Court facility. Collection will continue through the December 14 Rotary meeting.

International Dinner

The 9th International Dinner will be on Thursday, February 16, 2006 at the Frankfort Country Club. Dr. Paul Rader, former leader of the Salvation Army International and currently President of Asbury College, is our speaker. The International Dinner Committee is looking for Rotarians to sponsor KSU and local high school international students as guests for the dinner at a cost of $25 per student. Mark your calendars and please contact Joyce Honaker to sponsor an international student.

Teresa Barton, Executive Director of the Office of Drug Control Policy "Status of Substance Abuse in Kentucky"

Governor Ernie Fletcher appointed Teresa Barton as Executive Director of the Office of Drug Control Policy on February 16, 2005.

She was elected as Franklin County's first female Judge/Executive in 1998 and served until 2005. Judge Barton's background includes serving as deputy county judge, various clerical, secretarial and administrative positions within state agencies in Higher Education. She received Accounting (AAS, 1988) and Business (BA, 1998) degrees from Kentucky State University.

She served as a member of several organizations including the Frankfort Optimist Club, Frankfort YMCA, Frankfort Habilitation, Frankfort Women's Club, County Cooperative Extension Board, Downtown Frankfort Board of Directors, Chamber of Commerce, and the Early Childhood Business Council. Teresa also served as Chair of the Franklin County Board of Health, Secretary of the Country Judge/Executives Association and Chair of the Legislative Committee, Get Healthy! Kentucky, and the Jail

Standards Review Commission.

Judge Barton was chosen as one of the 40 Leaders Under 40 by the Shakertown Roundtable in 1999, and was awarded the 1999 Woman of Achievement on Government by the Frankfort Business and Professional Women and received the 2001 President's Award for First Term County Judge by the county judge/executive association. In 2003 she received the Contributions to Law Enforcement Award from the Kentucky Women's Law Enforcement Network.

She and her husband John live in Bittersweet Farms in Franklin County. They have five children with ages ranging from 15 to 35 and two grandchildren.

Deepest Sympathy

Our thoughts and prayers go out to the family of fellow Rotarian Sandy Sanders who passed away Sunday, December 25, 2005.

This Week's Speaker...

The speaker for the day was Dr. Sandra Richter of the Asbury Theological Seminary who has created a summer archeology program. She takes some of her students to Israel and brings the Old Testament to life by giving the students a "hands-on" experience with the culture of the country. Specifically, she spoke about a dig the students did at the City of Dan, located at the headwaters of the Jordan River. This all causes history to come alive for the students.

In honor of Dr. Richter's presentation, the book "Sing a New Song" was donated to the Bridgeport Christian Church Child Care Center's library.

sports since she gave up ballet. Her hobbies include traveling, reading, cross stitch and crochet, and Mary Kay cosmetics. She was a student intern at Kentucky Pollution Prevention Center, combined customer and public relations with Internet Sales at her dad's dealership (Crossroads Ford) since September 2004. She has been married to Patrick since August 2002 and they have no children yet – only two rotten Jack Russell terriers: Zack 12 and Bud 3. Her most notable accomplishment is that she co-authored the Kentucky Pollution Preventions "Healthcare Guide to Pollution Prevention Implementation through Environmental Management System".
