Literary Excellence

Colonel Arnett received a commission as an infantry officer in 1969 and served on active duty in the U.S. Army until 1973. His assignments during this period included platoon leader, company commander, and helicopter pilot. Assigned to the 23rd infantry division in Vietnam in 1970, his distinguished service included roles as an aircraft commander, flight leader, air-mission commander and instructor pilot.

In 1973, he joined the Kentucky army national guard where he became one of the youngest officers to ever command at battalion and brigade level. During the 1991 Persian Gulf War, over 500 troops assigned to his command were successfully mobilized and performed exceptional service in Iraq.

Highly decorated, his awards include the Bronze Star, Meritorious Service medal w/oak leaf cluster, air medal w/ 33 awards, army commendation medal w/oak leaf cluster and numerous other decorations. Colonel Arnett was selected in 1997 as the outstanding alumnus for the Department of Military Science at Eastern Kentucky University.

He retired from a distinguished 27-year public service career with Kentucky state government in 2000 where his assignments included serving as the state director of veterans affairs, state director of air transportation, and executive director of the office of Kentucky veteran centers. In this latter role he directed the construction and operation of the Thomson-Hood veterans center, a 300-bed long-term care facility serving our state's elderly veterans, and the initial construction of two additional 120-bed nursing homes in eastern and western Kentucky.

Colonel Arnett earned a BS from Eastern Kentucky University in 1969 and a Master of Public Affairs from KSU in 1979.

He is married to Mary Arnett, a retired teacher and they have two children: Jeff, a captain in the Kentucky army national guard who recently returned from an active duty tour in Afghanistan; and Heather, who completed a Ph.D. At the University of North Carolina and works as a research scientist in Seattle.

This Week's Speaker...

The speaker for the day was Admiral Dewey Sanders, Executive Vice President at the Kentucky United Methodist Homes for Children and Youth. He has a private practice in psychology in Northern Kentucky. Dewey began his talk by explaining his perspective on "dreams" and how they are something to hold on to. For example, his dream was to walk across America from Virginia Beach to San Francisco to raise money for children's charities. He also dreamed of running the Boston Marathon which he has also fulfilled. Because of his advocacy of following our dreams, he wrote a book entitled, "Love Your Life, Live Your Dreams." Unfortunately, some people live in their own box. However, it is the dreamers who change the world and become more than they ever thought they could be. In fulfilling his dream of walking across America, he spent 146 days on the road. He finished his trek across America in spite of personal injuries and adverse weather conditions. In doing so, Dewey celebrated being part of America by traveling through innumerable small towns. We live our dreams one step at a time and we are never too old to stop dreaming. On July 4, he crossed the Golden Gate Bridge and raised over $82,000 as a result. In honor of Dewey's talk, the book, "It Happened In Kentucky" was donated to Franklin County High School.

This Week's Speaker...

The speaker for the day was fellow Rotarian and author, Colonel Larry Arnett, who spoke about the bibliography he has written which contains some 1300 Kentucky authors and over 3000 titles. Although Kentucky has a rich literary tradition, unfortunately it does not come to the same level as horse racing, basketball and bourbon. However, the Kentucky literary production is astounding and even our own Rotary Club has several published authors. Foremost is former poet laureate Richard Taylor who excels in fiction, non-fiction and poetry. Larry spoke highly of the Kentucky Book Fair, which annually brings many nationally-acclaimed authors to Frankfort. Kentucky's most famous writer is probably Robert Penn Warren. In honor of Larry's talk, the book, "Kentucky Authors" by Colonel Larry Arnett was donated to the Kentucky Library and Archives.

This Week's Speaker...

Today's speaker was Rotarian Richard Taylor, professor of English at KSU, co-owner of Poor Richard's Books, and former Kentucky poet laureate. Richard provided insight into Kentucky during the Civil War years, the setting of his recently published novel Sue Mundy. "Sue Mundy" was the nom de guerre of Marcellus Jerome Clarke, who joined the Confederate army on his 16th birthday, was imprisoned in Indiana, and escaped to serve with John Hunt Morgan. Following Morgan's death in 1864, Clarke returned to KY and became a guerrilla fighter against the Union army. 1864-65 was a time of great civil unrest in Kentucky. Although about two-thirds of KY's soldiers joined the Union, the harsh regime of Union military commander Stephen Gano Burbridge led to loss of regard for the Union in KY, and to post-war support for Democrats and former Confederates in elections. Burbridge's most notorious order as military commander of KY was Order 59. It stated that four guerrillas would be executed for every one Union soldier killed by guerrillas. When the "supply" of guerrillas proved inadequate, regular Confederate prisoners of war were substituted. Richard said that perhaps the most shameful execution was the singling out of four prisoners of war in Lexington for a shooting in Peaks Mill. The four, including a frail 70-year-old man, were selected by lot, shackled, transported to Frankfort, forced to dig their own graves, and shot by a firing squad. Burbridge was so roundly condemned that he had to leave the state. During discussion, Jim Richardson noted that the four executed Confederates, Long, Hunt, Horton and Rafferty, are now buried in Frankfort Cemetery. Richard said that the name "Sue Mundy" was given by the editor

Rotarians Honored for War Service

Congratulations to our very own Charlie Hinds and Len Shirrell, both of whom recently were awarded the "Ordre National De La Legion D'Honneur" (Knight of the Legion of Honor medal) by the government of France for their service during World War II that did so much for France and Western Europe. We're all proud of you, Charlie and Len.

of the Louisville Daily Journal. In response to the draconian Union policies, the editor created a woman guerrilla whom the Union could not capture. Clarke was eventually captured and, at the age of 19, hanged in Louisville before a large crowd. In honor of Richard's presentation, a copy of Sue Mundy, donated by Poor Richard's, will be presented to the KSU Library.

Visitors and Guests

Our visitors were Mike and Georgene Scriver from the Frankfort Sunrise Club, Kenny Imes from the Murray Rotary Club, and Catherine Myers from the Lawrenceburg Rotary Club. Paula Murphy was the guest of Richard Taylor; Jennifer Hubbard-Sanchez was the guest of Terry Magel; and Lillian Nunnelly was the guest of her husband, Don Nunnelly.

This Week's Program

This Week's Program was a celebration of the 2006-2007 Rotary year. More than 50 members of our Club were recognized for their work. In honor of those Rotarians, whose names were placed on a "Wall of Change," a check for $500 was written to the Rotary Foundation. The check had a notation on it to the effect that the donation was to "change the world" because the Foundation changes the world, one man at a time, one woman at a time and one child at a time. Because of our donation, some child somewhere in the world will be inoculated against polio; or some family will have safe and clean water to drink as a result of a Rotary potable water project funded, in part, by our donation. Many, many thanks to all those members who worked so hard to make this a successful year.

VFW Make-Up Meeting

The July Make-up meeting will be on Monday July 2 at the VFW meeting hall on Second St. at Capitol Ave. from 11:45am until 12:45pm. Polly Jo Green will present the program.

Guests

Harold Canon (recipient of the Ethel McCray Community Service Award) was the guest of Len Shirrell and Barbara Boyer was the guest of her husband, President-elect Richard Boyer.

A Message from Past-president Carol

Being President this past year gave me a greater appreciation for Rotary and especially for the members of the Rotary Club of Frankfort. I believe that each and every member of our Club helped me in some way during the course of the year and I thank each and every one of you for your constant and ever present support. You have elected a wonderful group of officers for next year and I hope everyone supports President Steve and his Board as generously and constantly as you did me. Thank you.
