Next Week's Speaker...

The Kentucky Workforce Investment Board, in conjunction with the Education and Workforce Development Cabinet, has implemented a Work Ready Communities Program. This program will certify counties as "work ready" based on the quality of their labor force. The Frankfort Area Chamber of Commerce has been spearheading this effort for Franklin County and has just finished the application for the program. Our speakers will be Carmen Inman, Executive Director for the Frankfort Area Chamber of Commerce, and Barry Burkett, Jr., the Assistant Director for Thorn Hill Education Center. They will give us an update of where we stand in this process and how business leaders can participate moving forward, so that our community can be certified "work ready," a highly desirable certification that will help attract more business to our area.

VFW Monthly Meeting

The monthly VFW meeting will be on the second Monday, September 10 (not the normal first Monday of the month) at the VFW hall on Second Street at Capital Ave.

Rotary Day at the UN 2012

You are cordially invited to attend the 2012 Rotary Day at the United Nations on Nov. 3 at the UN in New York City. Rotary and the United Nations have a long history of working together and sharing similar visions for a more peaceful world. For more information visit riunday.org. Please note that the seats are going quickly. As of today, there are only 450 spots left. This is a wonderful opportunity to experience one of Rotary's most outstanding programs, as well as have a great weekend in the Big Apple. Don't miss it!

Yours in Rotary,
Bill Miller, PDG
District 6710

Sarah Butler's guest was Christine Wheeldon.

Jeff Hancock was brought in as a new member by Brenda Rice.
