Next Week's Speaker...

Veteran Kentucky journalist Al Smith of Lexington will be the luncheon speaker for the Frankfort Rotary Club Wednesday, Oct. 3. His topic, "Politics in an Earlier Era," will be based on two chapters of his new book that he will autograph and offer for sale at the State Book Fair Nov. 10.

"Kentucky Cured, Fifty Years in Kentucky Journalism" will be out in October from The History Press of Charleston, SC. The chapters he will discuss, "Before Mitch" (McConnell) and "Nunn and Ned," recount the careers of Republican US Senators John Sherman Cooper, Thruston Morton, and Marlow Cook, and Governors Edward T. "Ned" Breathitt, a Democrat, and Louie Nunn, a Republican. The book highlights occasions when the senators voted with Democrats and the two governors

VFW Meeting Cancelled

Due to unforeseen circumstances at the VFW, the regularly scheduled make-up meeting at noon on Monday, October 1 is cancelled. The next make-up meeting will be November 5.

worked together on educational issues after they left office.

After growing up in Florida and Tennessee, Al Smith covered a big-time Mafia boss, crooked cops and mad Governor Earl K. Long in Louisiana until, he has written, alcoholism cost him jobs on two New Orleans dailies. Sobering up in his 30's on a rural Kentucky weekly, he bought the paper, in Russellville, and then others across the state and launched a broadcast career of three decades on the KET network. He worked for two presidents in Washington as head of the Appalachian Regional Commission and won acclaim as a "National Rural Hero" for his efforts in journalism.

In his 80s he has written an earlier memoir, "Wordsmith, My Life in Journalism," and now Kentucky Cured" which mostly focuses on Kentucky stories.

The coveted Al Smith Fellowships for Kentucky artists honor his service to the arts. Honorary doctorates from the University of Kentucky and eight other colleges and universities recognize his efforts for education and economic development. He is a national Fellow of the Society of Professional Journalists and a member of the UK Hall of Fame of Journalism. He and his wife Martha Helen have three adult children.

Cancer Prevention Study-3

You can join the movement for less cancer and more birthdays by enrolling in the American Cancer Society's Cancer Prevention Study-3 (CPS-3). By joining CPS-3, you can help the American Cancer Society understand how to prevent cancer, which will save lives and give people more of their most precious resource: time. More time with their families and friends, more memories, more celebrations... and more birthdays. The American Cancer Society is recruiting men and women at select locations across the United States and Puerto Rico for CPS-3. Individuals are eligible to participate if they are willing to make a long-term commitment to the study by filling out questionnaires periodically, are between the ages of 30 and 65, and have never been diagnosed with cancer (not including basal or squamous cell skin cancer). For more information about CPS-3 and how you can participate, please visit cps3frankfort.org, email cps3@cancer.org, or call toll free at 1-888-604-5888.
