Message From the President

The election is near, and Rotary is non-political but community minded. Members are welcome to bring candidates as guests but the guest's candidacy must not be promoted from the podium or the floor.

Save the Date!

Mark your calendar for the International Dinner on Thursday, February 28, 2013.

Attention Program Chairs:

We have had a number of requests to speak to our Club from individuals, ranging from the spokesperson for the Soybean Association, to Senator Rand Paul, to a Revenue Cabinet official to explain Kentucky's tax amnesty program. In each case, I have explained that we have 25 individual Program Chairs who are responsible for programs. If you have not confirmed your program(s) speakers yet and would like assistance with a program, please contact me and I can put you in touch with those who have requested to speak. Thank you for all you do to make our programs so enlightening and interesting! –Carol Palmore
