Next Week's Speaker...

Brent Burchett is a native of Murray, Ky. where his family has farmed corn, soybeans, wheat and tobacco for three generations. He is a graduate of the University of Kentucky with a bachelor's degree from the College of Agriculture, and a master's from the Martin School for Public Policy & Administration. In 2011, Burchett joined the Kentucky Soybean Promotion Board as program director for the Kentucky Livestock Coalition, an alliance of the state's veterinary, beef, dairy, pork, poultry and grain associations. Most recently, Burchett worked on local government policy at the Lexington-Fayette Urban County Council. Earlier experiences include communications support at Ashland Inc., the offices of Kentucky Secretary of State Trey Grayson and U.S. Senator Mitch McConnell, and service on the Republican Party of Kentucky State Executive Committee. He also managed political campaigns in Central Kentucky for state representative and city council, and wrote a column for the Lexington Herald-Leader.

Food Drive

Rotary has its semi-annual Food Drive scheduled for Saturday, April 13 in conjunction with the local Boy Scouts and our Interact Club from Frankfort High School. Collection points will be set up at both Kroger and Save-A-Lot stores. Our fellow Rotarians are responsible for covering the collection spot at Save-A-Lot East in the Eastwood Shopping Center. The event will last from 10 a.m. through 6 p.m. We still need several Rotary volunteers to cover approximately 6-7 one-hour slots that day at Save-A-Lot East. Sign-up sheets will be at the weekly meeting. Please sign up or e-mail Brenda Rice at brendavrice@hotmail.com.

Jim Graves

Former President Jim Graves requests that we not forget him and would love to receive cards and visits from fellow Rotarians. He is residing at the Thomson-Hood Veterans Center, 100 Veterans Dr. Room 206, Wilmore, KY 40390.

Thought For The Day

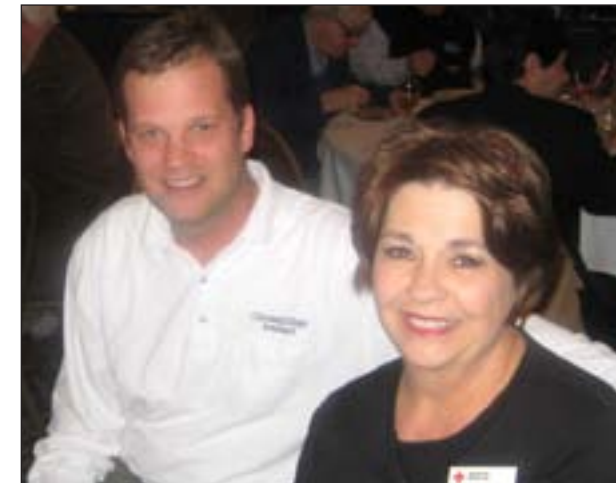

“What are the American ideals? They are the development of the individual for his own and the common good, the development of the individual through liberty, and the attainment of the common good through democracy and social justice.” -Supreme Court Justice Lois Brandeis

Greeter Don Dykman (left) welcomed Terry Shockley to Rotary.

President Charlie (right) stands with the speaker for the day, Hasan Davis, who is the Commissioner of Juvenile Justice.

Will Coblin of Chenault and Hoge was the guest of Paula Rutledge.

John Browning gave his classification talk.

Terry Shockley received his Paul Harris Plus 4 award from President Charlie.
