Next Week's Speaker...

Seth Poteat is the General Manager of the Lexington Legends. A native of Owensboro, Seth came to Lexington in 1996 to attend the University of Kentucky and never left. After interning with the Legends for one season, completing his MBA at UK and working for the Lexington Herald-Leader for a couple of years, he came back to work for the Legends. His path up the corporate ladder with the Legends began as a corporate sales representative, selling advertisements and season tickets. Excelling in that role, he was promoted to director of marketing, in which he oversaw the Legends marketing and advertising efforts. After seven-plus seasons serving in various roles with the Legends, he was promoted again to general manager in November of 2011. Seth resides in Lexington with his wife, Karen. He is an avid music fan who loves traveling, UK athletics, the Browns, Braves, Lakers and Liverpool. He loves great food, cold beer, Keeneland and thoroughbred racing, all four seasons, and of course, his beautiful dog, Stella.
