Judith G. Clabes, Editor and Publisher

Judy grew up in Henderson, graduated from UK with majors in English, journalism and education, got her MPA from Indiana State University, and has four honorary doctorates, most recently from UK in 2010. She had a distinguished career in journalism and philanthropy. During 37 years with the E.W. Scripps Company she served as Scripps' first woman editor, beginning with the Sunday Courier & Press in Evansville and then with The Kentucky Post. She was named president and CEO of Scripps Howard Foundation in 1996. On retirement from Scripps, she and her family moved to the Bluegrass where they have a family horse-farming operation. There she founded the Kentucky Philanthropy Initiative and her own consulting business. She has won numerous national, regional and state awards in journalism, philanthropy and community service. She is a member of the Kentucky Journalism Hall of Fame, the UK Hall of Distinguished Alumni, and the Kentucky Civil Rights Hall of Fame.

2013 Rotary International Convention • Lisbon, Portugal • June 23–26

Dear Rotarian:

A Rotary convention is a powerful thing. I will never forget my first convention, in Chicago in 1980. It was so impressive and so remarkable to me how volunteers from all over the world, working together, could accomplish so much.

I came to that convention as a member of a Rotary club. I left it as a Rotarian. The feeling that began in Chicago has never left me. And every year, I enjoy that convention experience again, in a different part of the Rotary world.

I am delighted to invite you to the 104th Rotary International Convention in Lisbon, Portugal, 23-26 June 2013. As an RI president from Japan, I am especially pleased that this convention will be hosted in Lisbon, because Japan and Portugal have a warm history together that began in 1542. That was the year a Portuguese boat landed on a southern Japanese island. The Portuguese sailors did not plan to come to Japan. Strong winds blew their boat off course. But it was a fortunate detour, and the beginning of a peaceful and prosperous relationship.

The Portuguese found Japan by accident. But it is no accident that Lisbon has been chosen for this convention. Lisbon is A Harbor for Peace. And peace will be the theme of this convention, as it has been the theme between Japan and Portugal for nearly 500 years.

Every year, when we come together for a Rotary convention, we see for a few days the world as it could be. We see people of all colors and cultures come together. We look past our differences and focus on our goal: the building of a better world.

In 2013, we will have A Harbor for Peace in Lisbon through Rotary. It will be a great honor for me to preside over this convention, and I look forward to having you join us there.

Sakuji Tanaka
RI President, 2012-13
