Next Week's Speaker...

Doug Graham has worked in the field of technology for over 25 years. After working as a consultant and later as a network designer for UK, he joined Commonwealth Credit Union in 1996 in his current position as Information Systems Manager. Doug studied at Western Kentucky University and UK, and holds numerous technical certifications. Doug's unique style of management and motivational skills combined with his extensive knowledge of Internet scams, cyber fraud, and how to defend against hackers affords him several invitations to speak at numerous conferences and events across the Commonwealth each year. Doug enjoys telling humorous stories about his friends and family, teaching audiences that they can do more with technology than they thought, and motivating people to excel beyond what they once perceived as their limits.
