Bo Cracraft, a lifelong resident of Frankfort, is the Director of US Operations, Sparrow Missions. A graduate of Western Hills High School, Bo continued his studies at the University of Kentucky and Eastern Kentucky University. In July 2010, Bo made his first trip to Honduras, where he experienced some of the tremendous ministry being done by God through Sparrow Missions. Bo has spent the last nine years serving as the Director of Public Equity assets for the Kentucky Retirement Systems, but effective January 1, 2014, he will transition full time as Director of the U.S. side of Sparrow Missions. Bo, his wife, Tara and their two children, Colby and Kallee currently live in Frankfort, KY. Both Bo and Tara are actively involved in children's ministry at Hope Community, where they can be found volunteering most Sunday mornings!

Eric and Roxanne Bowman will be the founding directors of the Sparrow Missions Children's Home. Eric is an engineer with extensive experience in ministry, and Roxanne has her Ph.D. in nursing and is also a registered nurse and a certified pediatric nurse practitioner. They are parents to two amazing young ladies, Tara and Ella. Eric and Roxanne have a passion for the Lord, for Sparrow Missions, for children, and for this orphanage ministry, and they are excited to live in Honduras at the Sparrow Missions Children's Home to oversee the healthy growth and development of each of these precious young lives that God created and loves so much.

Speaker Pam Rogers and Sam Marcus
