Next Week's Speaker...

Dave Shuffett has been a popular television host and producer on both the regional and national levels for 25 years. From 1989 to 1995, he served as host and producer of the long-running Kentucky Department of Fish and Wildlife television series, "Kentucky Afield." Shuffett then took his skills to the national level as owner and host of "Outdoors with Dave Shuffett," airing on broadcast stations and The Outdoor Channel.

After three years of crisscrossing America, he returned home in 1999 to become host and segment producer for Kentucky Educational Television's (KET) weekly series, "Kentucky Life," replacing well-known storyteller, writer, and television host Byron Crawford. Shuffett is still at the helm of the show, telling stories of the people and places that make Kentucky such a wonderful place. He is also co-host of the popular new KET series "Kentucky Collectibles."

Shuffett is a nine-time Emmy Award nominee for on-camera performance and television producing and, in 2005, was the winner of a national Telly Award. He is a popular public speaker, integrating humor with stories of his adventures. He is also the bi-monthly "Great Outdoors" columnist and photographer for Kentucky Living magazine.

Shuffett was born and raised in south central Kentucky in the small town of Greensburg, county seat of Green County. He attended Murray State University and graduated with a bachelor's degree in communications in 1982. He has two children, Will and Miranda, who grew up watching their dad on TV and accompanying him on many adventures.

Rotary Hears from KSU Athletics

Speakers at the make-up meeting were KSU Athletic Director, Denisha Hendricks, Head Football Coach Joshua Dean and Ladies Volleyball Coach, Christina Coleman. KSU athletes have a higher graduation rate than the student body, and the football players especially have a higher-than-average GPA. The Volleyball team won their division title. In the leftmost picture, Rotarian Jim Richardson and program chair Gordon Saks stand with Denisha. In the photo at right, Denisha stands with Joshua and Christina. Although few in number because of the extremely low temperatures, the members in attendance thoroughly enjoyed the program.
