Next Week's Program

Sen. Morgan McGarvey represents the 19th Kentucky Senate District, which includes parts of the Highlands, Crescent Hill, Audubon Park, Hikes Point, Jeffersontown and parts of south-central Jefferson County. Currently in his first term, Sen. McGarvey is a member of the Banking and Insurance, Licensing and Occupations, Local Government, State Government and Transportation committees.

After graduating from DuPont Manual High School and the University of Missouri's top-ranked journalism program, Morgan earned a degree from the University of Kentucky College of Law, worked at the Frost, Brown, Todd law firm in Louisville and served as an assistant attorney general in Frankfort. He currently practices at Morgan & Pottinger, a firm founded by his grandfather, and volunteers in the Louisville Bar Association's Domestic Violence Advocacy Program.

Morgan's early political experience came in campaigns on behalf of Ben Chandler, whose Washington congressional office he helped to open, and Jack Conway, for whom he focused on consumer protection in the attorney general's office. He puts a premium on communicating with constituents, which he made clear during the 2013 and 2014 legislative sessions by answering more than 3,000 phone messages and even more emails on legislative topics

A Louisville native, Morgan lives in the Kingsley neighborhood with his wife, Chris, and their twin children, Clara and Wilson. Also a Missouri graduate, Chris is a Learning and Development Professional at Yum! Brands.
