Rotary Foundation

Please consider giving to the Rotary Foundation. You can do so online by credit card at rotary.org, or by a check made out to the Rotary Foundation, given to Joyce Honaker. It's a fantastic and well-managed charity!

Rotary Golf Scramble

Friday, May 20 • University Club of Kentucky

Our annual golf scramble to benefit the Frankfort Rotary Youth Fund Scholarship Program will be Friday, May 20 at the University Club of Kentucky, 4850 Leestown Rd, Lexington, KY. The event will be played on the Big Blue Course. We need $150 Silver hole sponsors and $250 Gold hole sponsors. To sponsor a hole, please contact Brenda Rice at brendavrice@hotmail.com or 502-695-6008. We also need golf teams to register as soon as possible. Tom Utterback will coordinate the team registrations. For this scramble to be successful, we need all Rotarians to participate at some level. This is the largest fundraiser for our club and we need your help. We are also looking for sponsors. Let's all work together to make this scramble the most successful ever!

Institute equips regional leaders to advance Rotary's story

By Arnold R. Grahl from www.rotary.org

Regional leaders from around the globe gathered at Rotary World Headquarters in Evanston in early March for training they will use to inspire members in their respective areas.

Several participants - most of whom will begin their term on 1 July - noted that the true measure of the institute's success will be how well the information they learned is transmitted to Rotary members.

"We have to realize that training doesn't stop at the district level," said Michael Boyer, a Rotary public image coordinator from Pismo Beach, California, USA. "We train people really well to be governors and club presidents but we have to realize that we also have to train our members in how to talk about Rotary."

Boyer said his goal is to ensure that members can discuss Rotary's brand in a clear and compelling way. "We have to make our club presidents understand they can't just stand in front of their club and say, 'Go invite members.' They actually have to train members in how to ask and what to say," he said.

A major goal of the four-day regional leaders training institute was to equip these leaders -- regional Rotary Foundation coordinators, Rotary coordinators, Rotary public image coordinators, and endowment/major gifts advisers -- to help club and district leaders strengthen club membership, focus and foster Rotary's humanitarian service, and enhance the organization's public image.

Many participants were impressed to learn about new tools available on Rotary.org, which they practiced using during multiple workshops.

"I have used Rotary.org for years but I have realized these past couple of days how much more advanced it has become," said Alasdair Seale, an endowment/major gifts adviser from Edinburgh, Scotland. "I didn't realize, for example, that there are alumni reports that include Group Student Exchange students, vocational training teams, Ambassadorial Scholars, and Rotaractors. They are all clearly a target for membership."

Patrick Coleman, a regional Rotary Foundation coordinator from Luanshya, Zambia, said members need to be encouraged to use Rotary.org.

"(What we are learning) is very exciting because we are bringing Rotary into the 21st century," Coleman said. "We have members who brag about being born before the age of computers. But that's a bit like saying, 'I was born before cellphones so I am not going to use one.' We're here, we need to use these tools."

Sherri Muniz, a Rotary coordinator from San Antonio, Texas, said the value of the institute for her was being able to share ideas.

"The program itself is designed to teach us teamwork," Muniz said. "But we are building connections with people who have success stories, with people who have similar challenges, and those connections will last us far beyond the end of the institute."
