Paul Sawyer Library Card Initiative 2015

From Rotarian Diane Dehoney

September is Library Card Sign-up Month, and each year, the Paul Sawyer Public Library hosts an initiative to encourage community members to come to the library and get a card. A free library card allows for many educational and recreational opportunities, and provides free and open access to all kinds of materials, resources, classes, and programs. During the month of September, we try to reach out and partner with local businesses to add even more value to the library card. I know that many of you are business owners, so I wanted to share this partnership opportunity with you.

Here are the details: we are inviting Frankfort businesses to sponsor a discount of their choosing for customers that show their library cards upon purchase. As always, we will provide extensive advertising – we will put the discount details and list of participating businesses in the State Journal, on our FB page, in the library newsletter, on signs, and in special brochures and flyers to be distributed around town. Businesses are welcome to choose whatever discount they would like to offer, whether it is a certain dollar amount or percentage off the total purchase/service, a discount or waiver on an introductory or registration fee, or a free gift with minimum purchase. The possibilities could go on, but we ask that the discount be only for customers who show their Paul Sawyer Public Library card. We hope to have a wide range of discounts from a variety of Frankfort businesses!

If you would like to participate in this one-month promotion, or know someone who would, please contact me by Tuesday, August 11, and I can get you everything you need. Diane Dehoney, Community Service Librarian Paul Sawyer Library 502-352-2665 ext. 108 diane@pspl.org
