ISSUE NO. 52

Dec. 30, 2015

Next Week's Program...

On Dec. 7, 2015, Kentucky State University President Raymond M. Burse announced John

L. Smith as the new head football coach of the Thorobreds. Smith comes to KSU with more than 40 years of college coaching experience and more than 20 years as a head coach. He has posted a 150-113 record at six schools as a head coach including, most notably, stops at Louisville, Michigan State University, and the University of Arkansas. Most recently, Smith spent three seasons at Fort Lewis College, where he inherited a team that had been 0-10 in 2012 and posted a 7-4 record this year, equaling the program's best record in 40 years. Prior to his time at Fort Lewis, Smith served as special teams coordinator and linebackers coach at Arkansas from 2009-11 before serving as the team's head coach for one season in 2012. He also spent four seasons at Michigan State, where he went 22-26 from 2003-06 and won Big Ten Coach of the Year honors in 2003.

Before his time at Michigan State, Smith went 41-21 at Louisville from 1998-2002, a stretch that included five straight winning seasons, five straight bowl appearances, and two conference championships. Smith also has head coaching stops at Utah State University as well as the University of Idaho, where he went 53-21 from 1989-94 and left as the school's winningest head coach.

An Idaho Falls native, Smith holds a Bachelor of Science in Physical Education and Mathematics from Weber State University, where he was a linebacker and quarterback in his collegiate playing days. He also holds a Master of Science in Physical Education from the University of Montana.
