Next Week's Program...

Fellow Rotarian Don Dampier will be discussing his book on Kentucky basketball.

Dampier, author of non-fiction, debuted at age 68 with Finding the Fifties (2005), a celebration of small town, small schools Americana, featuring his original hometown of Carlisle, Kentucky and CHS '55 "Musketees" classmates. His currently featured work, published in 2017, is Basketball Beginnings in the Commonwealth of Kentucky 1900s-1950s. His other published books include Why Write a Book ('08), The Quilter's Quest:

Muses of a Non-Quilting Husband of a Quilter ('11), and Carlisle High School 1893-1963w: Odyssey into the Twentieth Century

('15). Don's conversational "story telling" books are filled with history, culture, and humor, sometimes with a bit of whimsy, and all featuring true-to-life people and places. He is a 1959 graduate of the University of Kentucky, a 40-year retiree of Kentucky state government, and a 12-year volunteer narrator for Kentucky Talking Books for the Blind. He currently resides in Scott County on the banks of South Elkhorn Creek with Pat, his wife of 58 years-to-date. (from pspl.org)

Rotary's Four-Way Test

The Four-Way Test is a nonpartisan and nonsectarian ethical guide for Rotarians to use for their personal and professional relationships. The test has been translated into more than 100 languages, and Rotarians recite it at club meetings.

Of the things we think, say or do...

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
