Next Week's Program...

Barry Alberts, CityVisions

CityVisions Associates is a firm “created to plan, design, and develop unique and special urban places, not merely buildings or spaces.” Frankfort is an ever-growing nexus for business as well as local artistry, history, and health. With the redevelopment of the Capital Plaza, CityVisions Associates aims to create an environment that celebrates all aspects of the city.

Current and recent CityVisions projects include the transformation of HH Richardson-designed former psychiatric asylum in Buffalo, New York into a boutique hotel; redevelopment of the Old Fayette County Courthouse in Lexington; revitalization of the riverfront in Owensboro; and redeveloping downtown districts in Louisville, Dayton and Minneapolis through affiliate development partner, Weyland Ventures.

CityVisions Associates plans to conduct both large and small public meetings, as well as meetings with organizations in the community. Public input, combined with their years of experience with cities not unlike ours, will provide the City with a plan for the Capital Plaza project that will truly be representative of Frankfort and its citizens.
