Next Week's Program...

Laura Moreno grew up in Frankfort with her parents, Angela and Rick Moreno. She is a single mother of 14-year-old Katherine. She works for the Thorn Hill Education Center, where she is able to give back to the community that has done so much for her. Laura graduated from Western Hills, as will her daughter in just a few short years.

Before joining the staff at Thorn Hill, she worked for more than 11 years for the Commonwealth of Kentucky – the majority of which was spent as a caseworker for the Cabinet for Health and Family Services. As a state employee, Laura was recommended for the Kentucky Certified Public Managers training program where she completed the Certificate of Management Fundamentals in addition to the many continuing education courses she successfully completed.

Prior to being hired as the Digital Works Coordinator, there was a period of time where she found herself in a perpetual loop of low-paying jobs punctuated by periods of unemployment. This was a very difficult experience but, it gave her a unique position to truly understand the struggles facing the under- and unemployed in the community. It is with this knowledge that she was able to serve others with a reach that goes far beyond the classroom.

Digital Works is a sustainable job-creation program bringing technology-based jobs to local communities. Using a digital learning model, the program trains, places, and mentors candidates, and connects them to 21st-century employment opportunities. Candidates for Digital Works must be at least 18 years old, have a high school diploma or GED, and successfully complete a pre-employment credit/criminal background check. For more information check out digitalworksjobs.com.

Rotary International Dinner

Frankfort Club's annual International Dinner will be held on Feb. 26 at the Capital Plaza hotel so members should put that date on their calendars!

State Senator C. B. Embry, Jr. was a guest at today's meeting.

These ladies appear to be enjoying the meeting, or at least each other's company!
