Next Week's Program...

Principal John Lyons comes to Frankfort High School having worked in the Jessamine County Schools for the past 14 years, most recently as Assistant Principal at East Jessamine High School. Frankfort High is a school steeped in tradition and we are excited about John promoting the traditions and academic excellence that have existed there for over 150 years. John is a loyal, dedicated individual committed to making Frankfort High School one of the best schools in the state and the nation.

Prior to his work as Assistant Principal, John served as a teacher of Math and Social Studies in Nicholasville, Lexington and the Atlanta, Georgia area. He also served as Athletic Director during his tenure with Jessamine County. Lyons received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Middle School Education as well as a Master of Arts degree in Administration and Supervision from the University of Kentucky.

Following his acceptance of the position, Mr. Lyons said "I am thankful for the opportunities that are being provided to me at Frankfort High School and look forward to fostering continued passion, pride and dedication to students that are trademarks of Frankfort."

International Dinner

Please plan to attend the 19th Annual International Dinner at the Frankfort Country Club, beginning at 6:00 pm, April 14. Former Governor Martha Layne Collins will be the guest speaker. This meeting will take the place of the weekly Rotary meeting, so your attendance is kindly requested. We also need your help in securing items for the Silent Auction. Proceeds will benefit cervical cancer diagnosis and treatment in Haiti. Let's have a great crowd for this event! —President Dan

Volunteers sought for Westridge Elementary

Volunteers are still need to mentor Westridge's Elementary first graders in reading and spelling. If you interested please contact Sally Lanham.

Today's speaker Sam Daum and Joyce Honaker.

Dr Chris Boni, Carmen Inman, and Shirley Elkin have a confab. (The mirror on the wall behind them is a little confusing to the eye.)
