Meet Stuart E. Alexander III,
District Governor Elect

Email: salexander@louisvilleemploymentattorney.com

Stuart Alexander was born in Heidelberg, Germany and was raised in Louisville. He obtained his undergraduate degree from St. John's University and his J.D. from the University of Louisville. He is also Senior Professional Human Resource (SPHR) certified, which assists him in his Louisville law practice, focusing on employment and business law. Stuart has served on the boards of Sister Cities of Louisville, the Kentucky Shakespeare Festival, and the Americana Community Center, which provides services for the US Department of State's refugee resettlement program.

Stuart joined the Rotary Club of Louisville in 1994 and became active on the International Service Committee. He has participated in several international projects including micro-lending in Belize, water/sanitation projects in Uganda, and Ghana, and cervical cancer screening in Haiti. He has also assisted with projects in Kentucky affecting legal refugee and immigrant populations such as micro-lending and home repair for multi-generational refugee families. He served at the district level, organizing a multi-district conference with District 6740 in Eastern Kentucky, and also worked with that district during the 2010 Alltech FEI/World Equestrian Games in Lexington, Kentucky. A former recipient of the Rotarian of the Year award, Stuart served as president of the Rotary Club of Louisville during its Centennial year, 2012-13, and is currently the district governor nominee (2016-17).

Stuart is married to Peg Alexander, a Louisville remodeling contractor, and they are proud parents of three adult daughters and one English shepherd named Nellie.
