Next Week's Program...

We welcome Mary Ann Burch and Dr. Roger Strunk to our club to review the dental mission trip to Honduras. Our club has received a district grant to buy water filtration systems to support this project. This one-week trip, coordinated by the First United Methodist Church in Frankfort, has been helping those in need for many years. These volunteers provide services including the installation of water filtration units, dental and medical services, providing prescription medicine and fulfilling optical prescriptions. They also provide nutrition education to local villages and repair medical equipment. These volunteers pay their own way to serve those in need and exemplify the Rotary motto, Service Above Self.

Salvation Army Bell-Ringing

It is that time of year when we sign-up to ring the bell for the Salvation Army. This year's bell-ringing is set for Saturday, Dec. 2 from 10 a.m. until 8 p.m. at Kroger East (two locations), Kroger West (two locations) and Wal-Mart (two locations). We will be ringing in two-hours shifts. To sign-up see Donna Hecker or Dustin Cole beside the registration desk.

Rotary Day at the UN filled with peace champions and workshops

By Geoff Johnson via rotary.org

The Palais des Nations in Geneva, built as the headquarters for the League of Nations, remains an enduring emblem of humanity's hope for global peace, making it an ideal setting for this year's Rotary Day at the United Nations on 11 November.

Underscoring this year's theme – Peace: Making a Difference – the event will include workshops devoted to sustainability and peace, as well as a workshop on education, science, and peace, designed by and for young leaders.

Rotary General Secretary John Hewko will introduce each of the People of Action: Champions of Peace. They are:

- Jean Best, Rotary Club of Kirkcudbright, Scotland
- Taylor (Stevenson) Cass Talbott, Rotary Peace Fellow, Portland, Oregon, USA
- Ann Frisch, Rotary Club of White Bear Lake, Minnesota, USA
- Safina Rahman, Rotary Club of Dhaka Mahanagar, Bangladesh
- Alejandro Reyes Lozano, Rotary Club of Bogotá Capital, Colombia

- Kiran Singh Sirah, Rotary Peace Fellow, Tennessee, USA

Other highlights will include a polio-tulip-planting ceremony, updates on polio eradication, and closing remarks from Edwin Futa, dean of the Rotary Representative Network.

Rotary Day at the UN culminates Geneva Peace Week. That event's organizers include the Institute for Economics and Peace, a global think tank that uses data-driven research to analyze peace and quantify its economic value.

This summer, the institute and Rotary announced a strategic partnership that will pair the two organizations' individual strengths – empirical research and community connections – and focus them on resolving conflict and achieving peace.

On 8 November, as part of Geneva Peace Week, the institute will join the Geneva Centre for Security Policy in hosting a panel discussion, "Building the Evidence for Better Prevention." Staged at the Maison de la Paix, it will systematically evaluate conflict prevention and peacebuilding methods in the context of a research framework.
