Thanksgiving meeting with the Kiwanis

This year the Kiwanis will be having Bill Lamb speaking. He is the President and General Manager of WDRB and WMYO in Louisville and the Vice President of Broadcast Operations for Block Communications, Inc. overseeing nine television stations. His management style is one of innovation and calculated risk taking.

In June 2002, WDRB became the first Louisville station in decades to air Editorials with Point of View. In 2007 and again in 2008 and 2012 WDRB televised the first all High Definition broadcast in Louisville television history with Thunder Over Louisville. It remains the largest and most complex telecast ever undertaken by a local television station in the history of American television.

For the third consecutive year, WDRB/WMYO has been named "One of the Best Places to Work in Kentucky" by the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce.

Lamb began his broadcasting career as a DJ at a radio station in Michigan in the early '70s, and has worked at TV stations in Flint, Nashville, Birmingham, Peoria, and Miami. Bill is a Rotarian, the immediate past Chairman of the KY Broadcasters Association, and recently authored a book on leadership and culture change, called "Money Follows Excellence" and will have copies available for purchase.
