Next Week's Program...

District Governor Stuart Alexander III was born in Heidelberg, Germany and was raised in Louisville, Kentucky.

He obtained his undergraduate degree from St. John's University and his J.D. from the University of Louisville. He is also Senior Professional Human Resource (SPHR) certified which assists him in his Louisville law practice, focusing on employment and business law. Stuart has served on the boards of Sister Cities of Louisville, the Kentucky Shakespeare Festival, and the Americana Community Center, which provides services for the US Department of State's refugee resettlement program.

Stuart joined the Rotary Club of Louisville in 1994 and became active on the International Service Committee. He has participated in several international projects including micro-lending in Belize, water/sanitation projects in Uganda, and Ghana, and cervical cancer screening in Haiti. He has also assisted with projects in Kentucky affecting legal refugee and immigrant populations such as micro-lending and home repair for multi-generational refugee families. He served at the district level, organizing a multi-district conference with District 6740 in Eastern Kentucky, and also worked with that district during the 2010 Alltech FEI/World Equestrian Games in Lexington. A former recipient of the Rotarian of the Year award, Stuart served as president of the Rotary Club of Louisville during its Centennial year, 2012-13.

Stuart is married to Peg Alexander, a Louisville remodeling contractor, and they are proud parents of three adult daughters and one English shepherd named Nellie.

Rotary Businesses of the Year honored

This year the Rotary sponsored "Business of the Year Award" was named Frank Sower Business of the Year. Two awards were given: one to a business with 50 or fewer employees, and one to a company of greater than 50 employees.

In the above images, Frank Sowers' son John presents awards to Dr. Melissa Holland of Renshaw, Wix, Murray and Holland (<50 employees); and to Alan Davis for Commonwealth Credit Union (>50 employees).

Frank Sower was a fellow Rotarian for 65 years. He owned Sower Hardware and Sower Office Equipment from 1937 to 1983. He was the first president of the new Frankfort/Franklin Co. Chamber of Commerce, was president of The Kentucky Retail Hardware Association, received the first President's award from the Chamber of Commerce, was the only person to serve two different governors as President of the Kentucky Historical Society, was president of the Frankfort Rotary Club, and also was an undefeated YMCA grade school basketball coach in regular season and tournament play for three years.

The Four-Way Test

The Four-Way Test is a nonpartisan and nonsectarian ethical guide for Rotarians to use for their personal and professional relationships. The test has been translated into more than 100 languages, and Rotarians recite it at club meetings. Of the things we think, say or do...

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
