Next Week's Program...

Mary Nishimuta built her organizing roots in a business environment. Over the past 20 years, she has worked with Fortune 500 companies to implement supply chain management systems, merging deep experience with new ideas to transform businesses. 10 years ago, she became a small business owner; the Kentucky Coffeetree Cafe has grown into a hub for the downtown Frankfort community. Mary's political engagement came after the 2008 recession, upon seeing many people left behind in the recovery. She served as a national team leader during the presidential primary in 2016, went to the Democratic National Convention as a delegate and member of the rules committee, and was subsequently appointed to the KDP's State Central Executive Committee. Mary's mission with the KDP is to unify the party so that we can fight together for jobs that provide living wages, accessible and affordable healthcare, and a quality public education for our children.

Rotarian John Sower spoke to us about school being back in session and our award-winning first grade reading program at Westridge Elementary needing volunteers to fill some of the open time slots remaining for this quarter.

Monthly Make-Up Meeting

The monthly make-up meeting will be Monday, Sept. 11 at noon at the New China Buffet adjacent to Kmart on US 127 South.

Club's Visioning Session

Our visioning session for the Frankfort Rotary Club is almost here! We have 18 Rotarians who have agreed to participate in developing the road map for the future growth and success of our club. Thank you! If you would like to participate at the session on Sept. 13 from 4:30-9:00 p.m. at United Bank, please contact Kristin Cantrell or Dustin Cole to sign up. We would love to include you in the process!

Mark Kopp, Superintendent for Franklin County Schools, spoke to us about the future collaboration of the schools in our area, as well as the support for our teacher's retirement system and for planned growth in our community to include a Center for the Arts.
