Next Week's Speaker...

JC Burton is the Vice President of Programming for 7 Mountains Media/Cap City Communications. He says, "I am originally from Lexington and still live there with my wife and son, but I love my daily commute to Frankfort. I get to work with a great group of people and I get to interact with this awesome community every day. I love music, Kentucky basketball, a good action movie, the ocean and spending time with my wife and son."

JC Burton

"I guess my radio story started when I was in Kindergarten and was asked to play the part of announcer for our production of The Twelve Days of Christmas. My character name was Ivan Earful and, even though I was incredibly shy at the time, I got up on stage in front of everyone and didn't forget a single line. I was actually pretty shy all the way through high school but I loved listening to the radio. I used to call in and make requests a lot. I'm pretty sure I annoyed my fair share of DJs back in the day. How else was I going to know when I needed to hit 'record' on my cassette deck so I could finally complete my mixtape? One Saturday morning I discovered Casey Kasem and then Rick Dees and loved the countdown shows they did.

"I first saw the inside of a radio station at the age of 17 when I became an intern for a group of radio stations in Lexington and I haven't looked back from there. I started at Star 103.7 in May of 2007 and I love working for this radio station. My radio journey has taken me from Lexington to Panama City to Elizabethtown and now Frankfort. I currently serve as Vice President of Programming for our wonderful stations in Frankfort as well as 30 stations across central Pennsylvania."
