Next Week's Speaker...

Dalton W. Green is Central Region Vice President of DECA, which prepares emerging leaders and entrepreneurs in marketing, finance, hospitality and management in high schools and colleges around the globe. Dalton is an experienced student leader with a demonstrated history of working in the Career and Technical Education (CTE) field. He also works closely with city and business professionals in helping better the community through non-profit and community organizations such as Rotary International. Dalton will be speaking to our club about the importance of working with young professionals and establishing Interact/Rotaract clubs, as well as how Rotary can play a key role in the future of Career and Technical Education.
