Next Week's Speaker...

Please note that our club will not be meeting at the Capital Plaza Hotel on Oct. 30; it will be at Franklin County High School's Career Tech Center (CTC), 1106 E. Main Street. Bill Scott has arranged for the club to meet and have tours of the facility. Directions: Coming from Frankfort towards Georgetown you will need to take the first driveway to the left after the signal light located at the Elkhorn Middle School. Once you have turned go down the drive to the last building, parking will be there at that building.

CTC Principal John Sanders will be speaking to the club next week. "John comes to us with a great deal of experience as well as the interpersonal and leadership skills that will help take the CTC – which is already one of the top schools of its kind in the state – to the next level," said Franklin County Schools Supt. Mark Kopp. "I am especially excited about

Sanders

John's commitment to partner with local businesses to meet their workforce training needs."

Sanders has been an educator for 17 years, the last seven as associate principal and director of Career and Technical Education of Grant County High School. "I am thrilled to be joining the team at Franklin County," said Sanders. "The CTC is already known statewide for its great programs for high school students, but also for pioneering innovative arrangements that allow the building to be used at night and on weekends to train adults already in the workforce. That kind of innovation and flexibility serves the community very well by building a stronger, more varied and more attractive workforce for local businesses."

The event will be held at VFW located on the corner of Capitol Avenue and Second Street. Tickets are $6 each for this chili luncheon. This is an event to help abused and neglected children in our community. Rotarians attending may count this as a make-up meeting.

At right, University of Kentucky Athletics Director Mitch Barnhart addresses the club.
